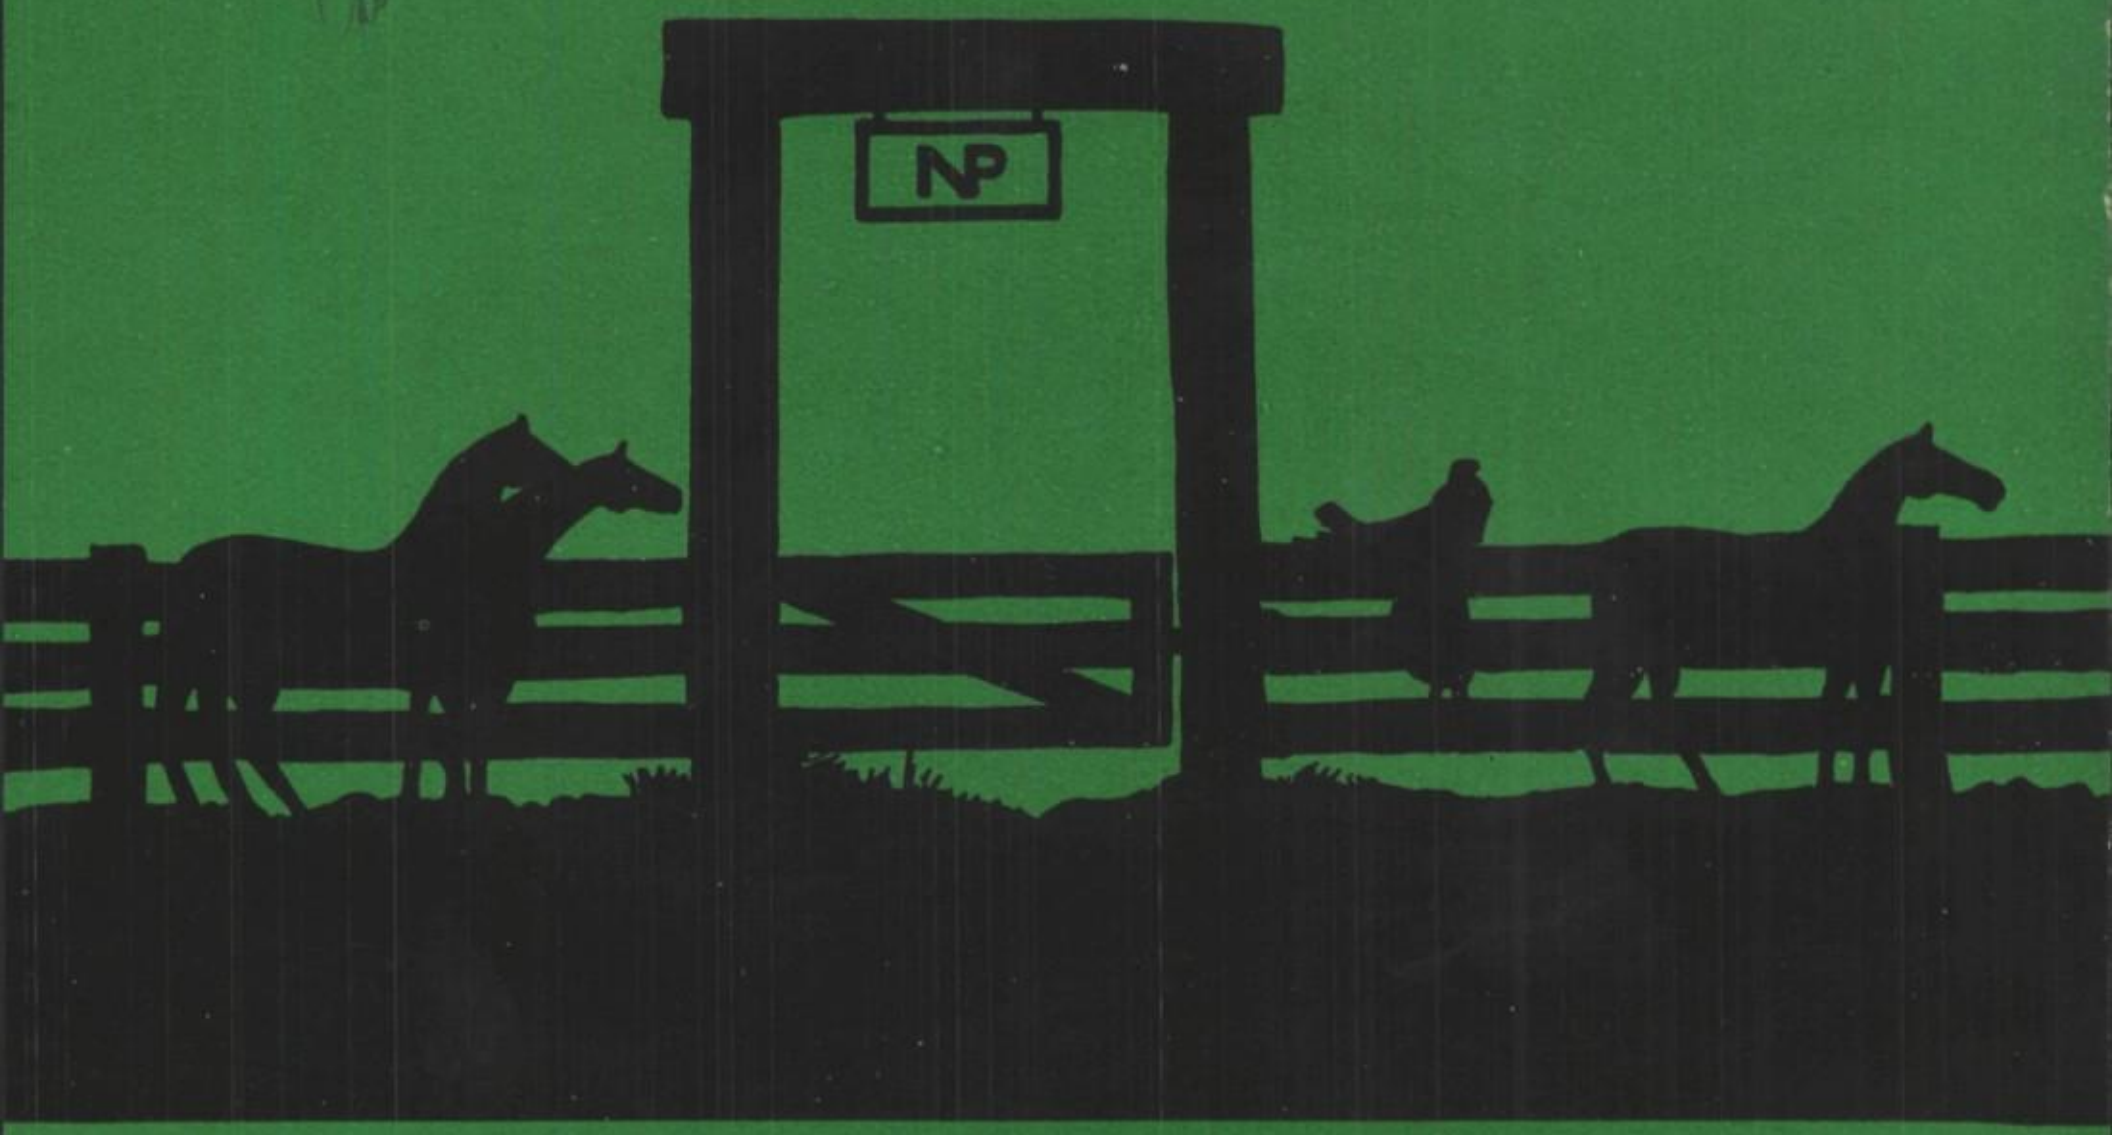
Campus



Our campus—we're proud of it. Proud of the "wide open spaces", the elbow room; of our buildings—sharp, clean, young. Proud of the whole scheme of our campus—the true Western Spirit—looking forward, unbound by tradition or procedure.

We're proud of the effect it has on us—the informal grace that is reflected in our every day lives.

The Range

Dear Evalleen,
Best of Everything
to a swell girl. It has been swell
knowing you at
Bethel and school.
Will be seeing you
this summer. Love
Billie

"Lest We Forget"

We're proud of our school—and of our former Mustangs, too. Especially of those of our friends who will never return to their alma mater—nor to anyone else. They were the cost of victory.

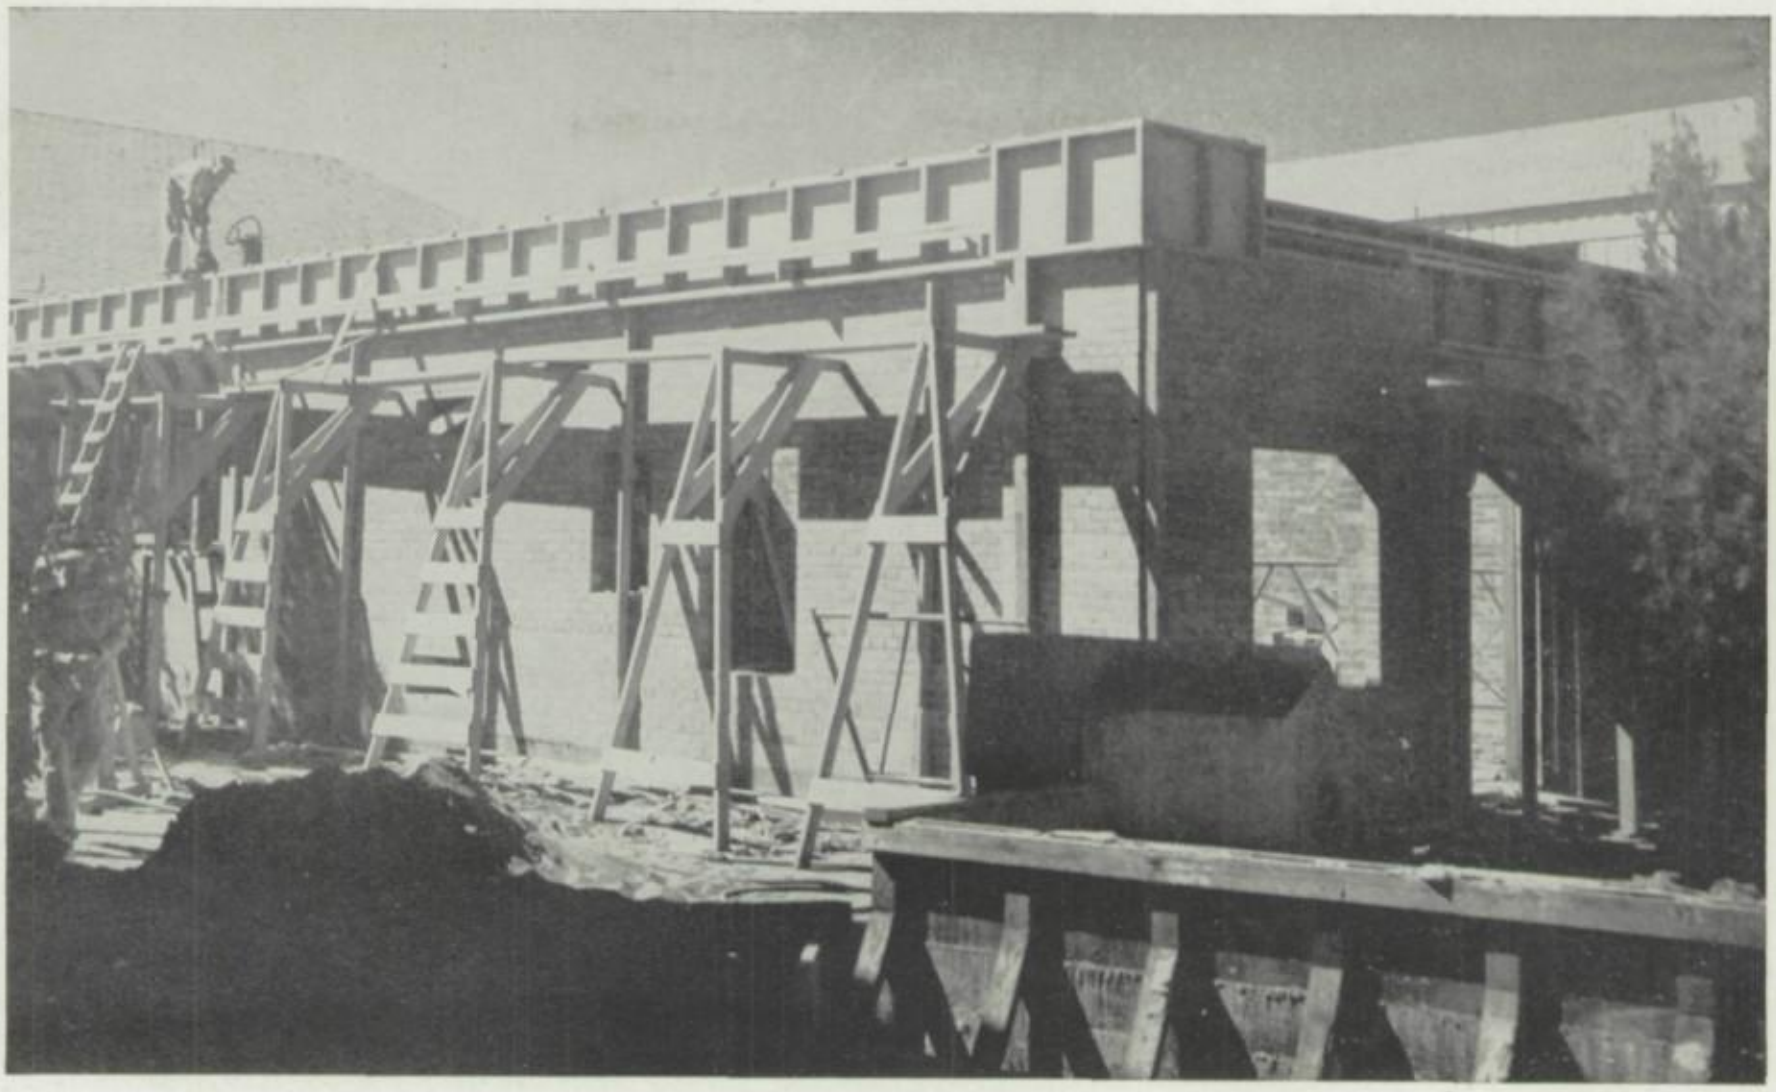
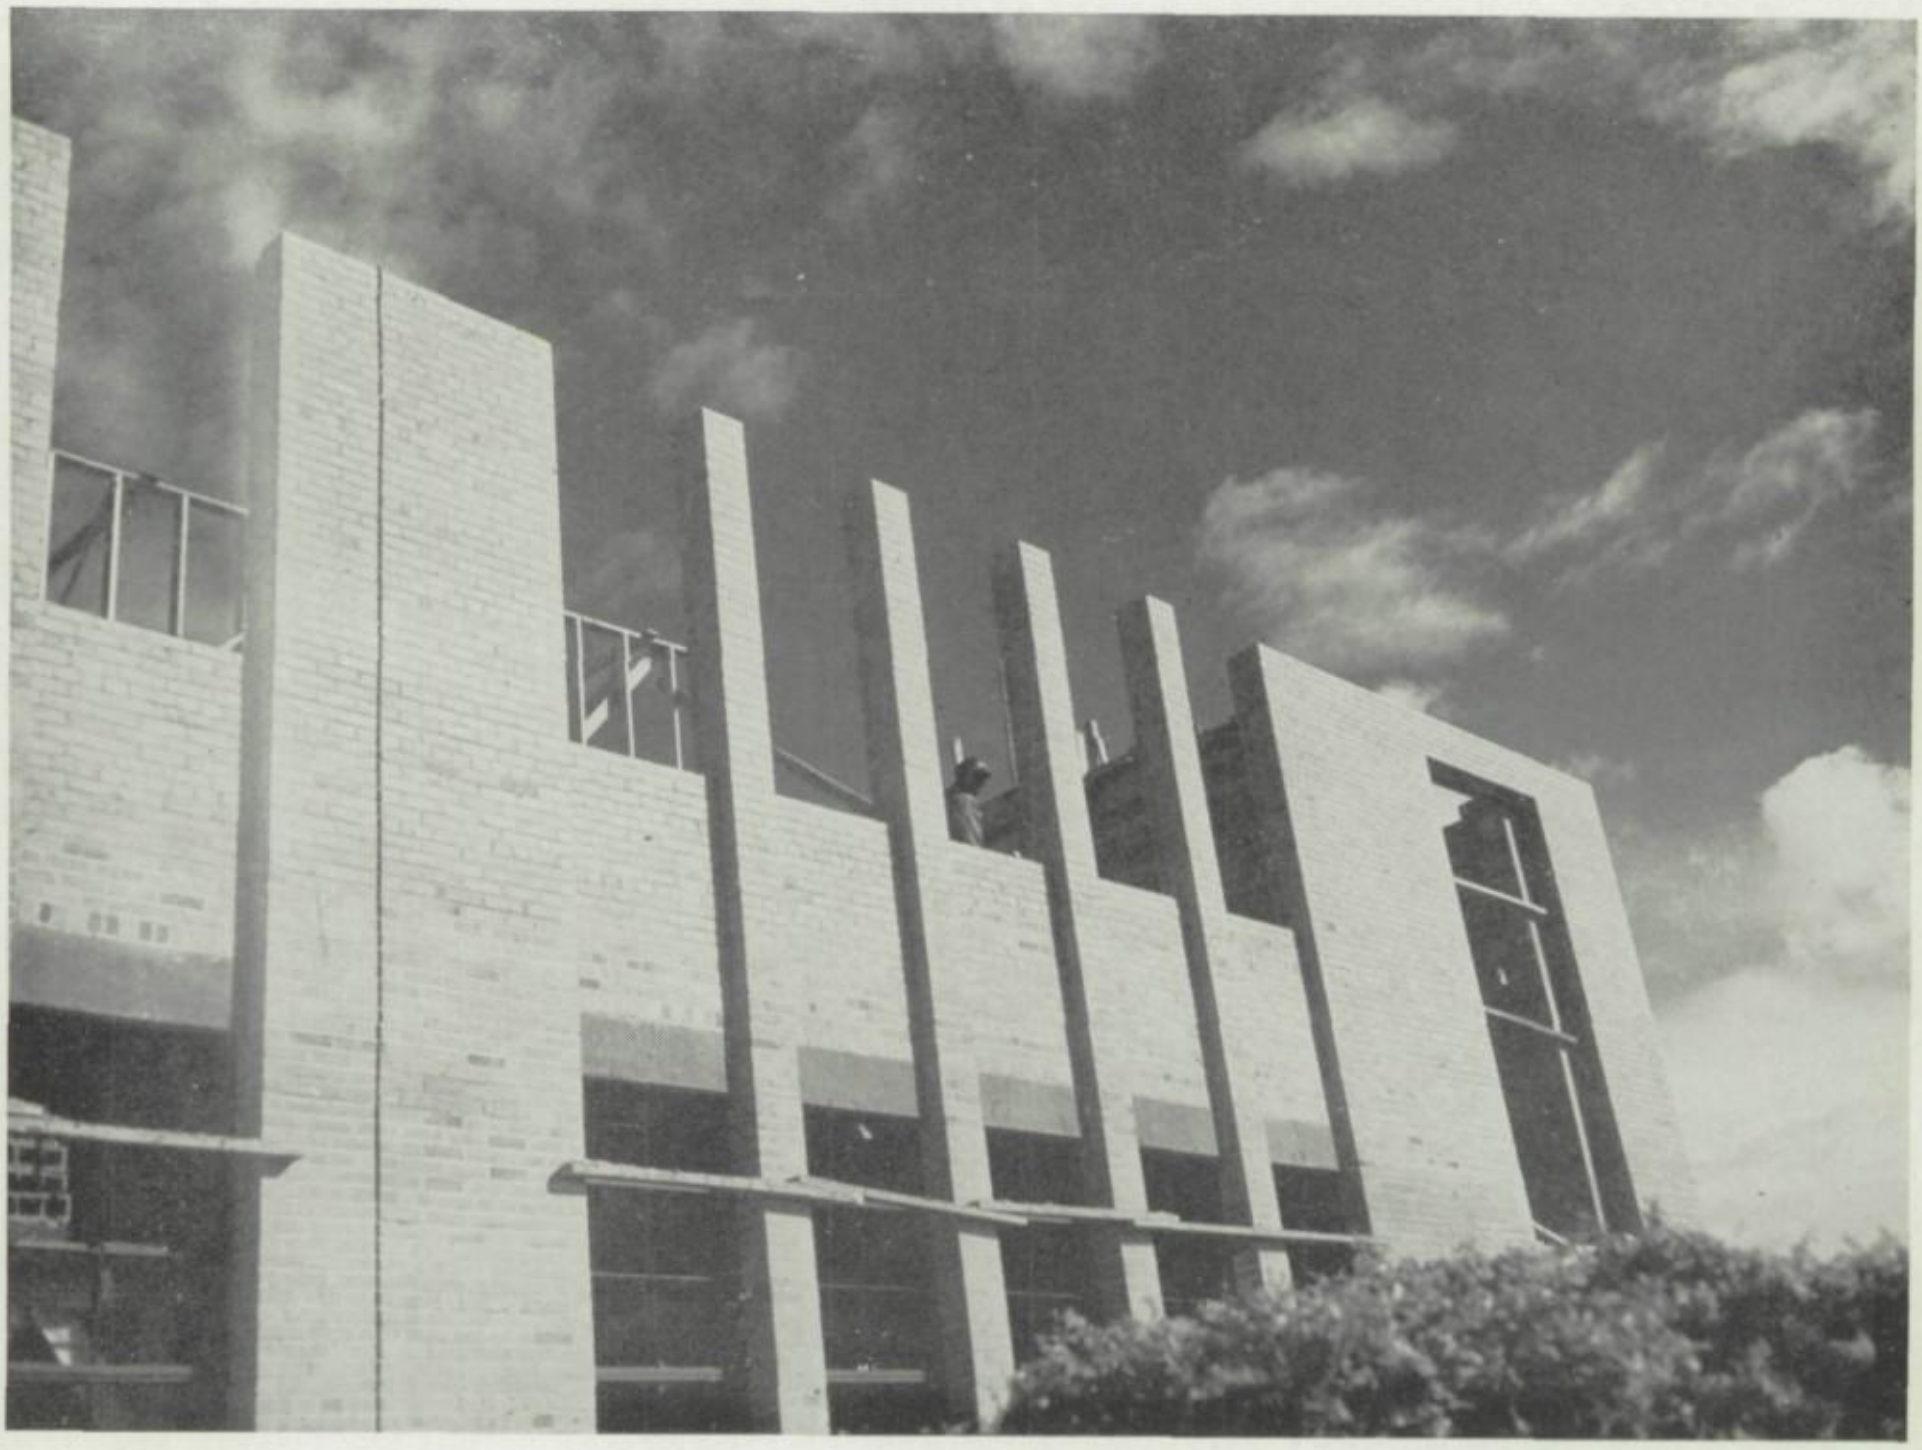
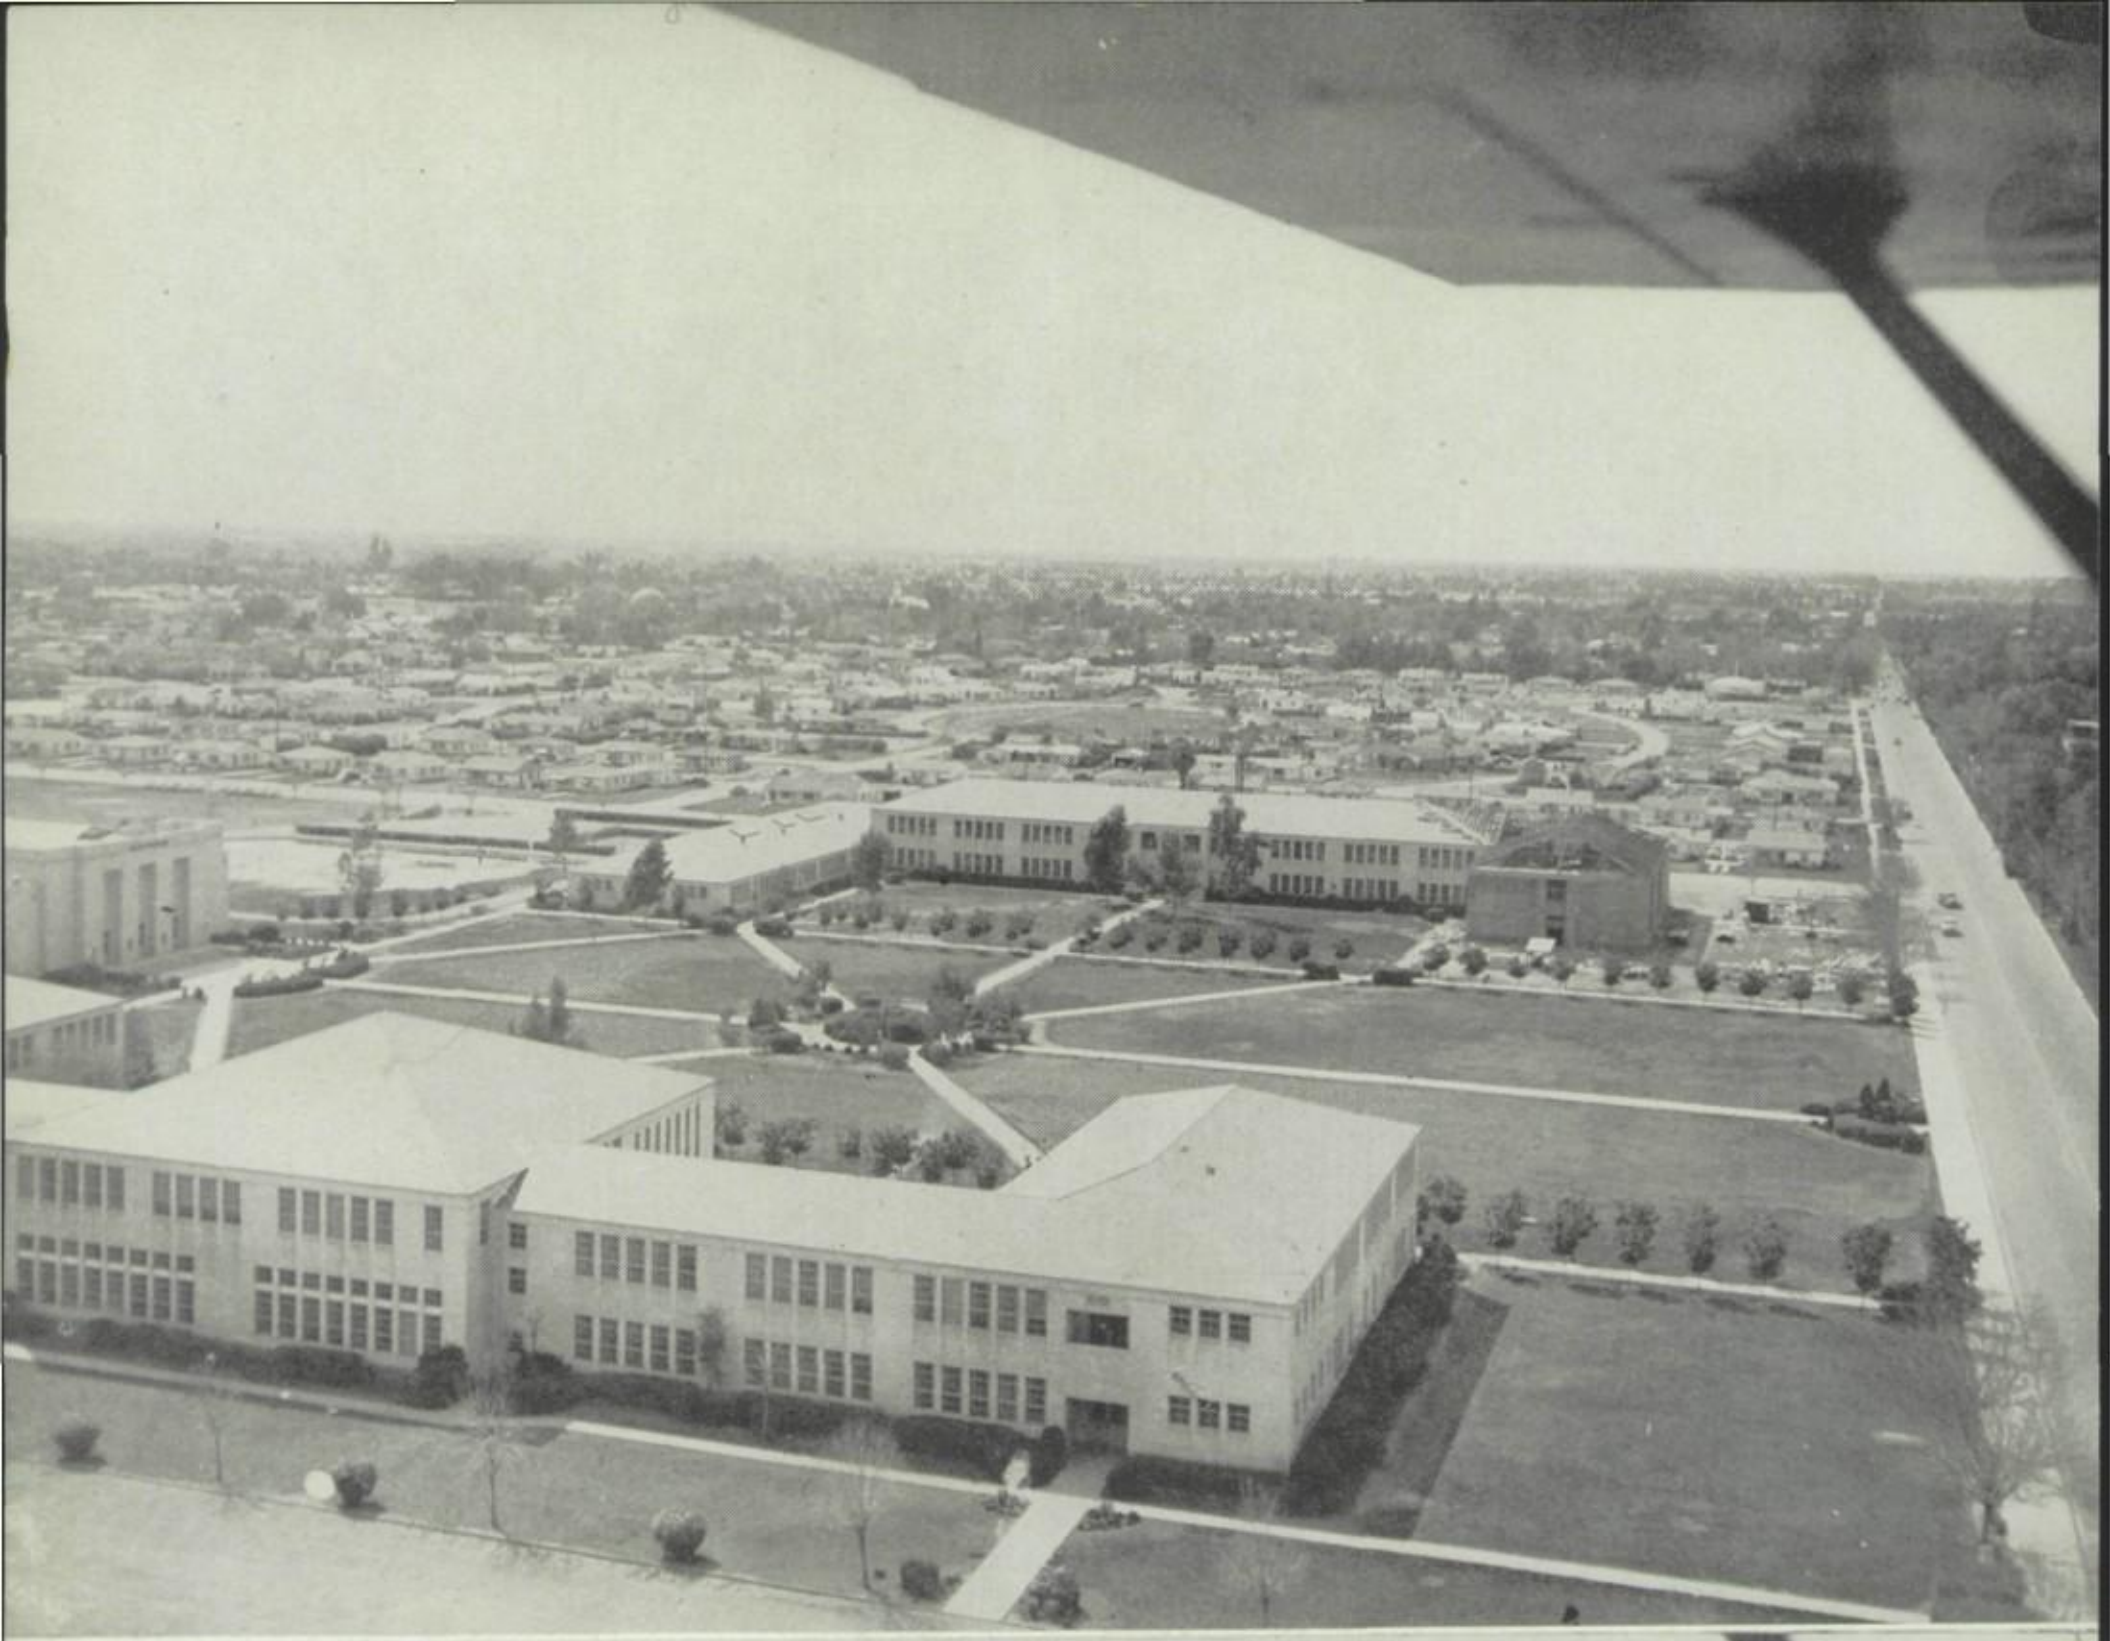
New Corrals

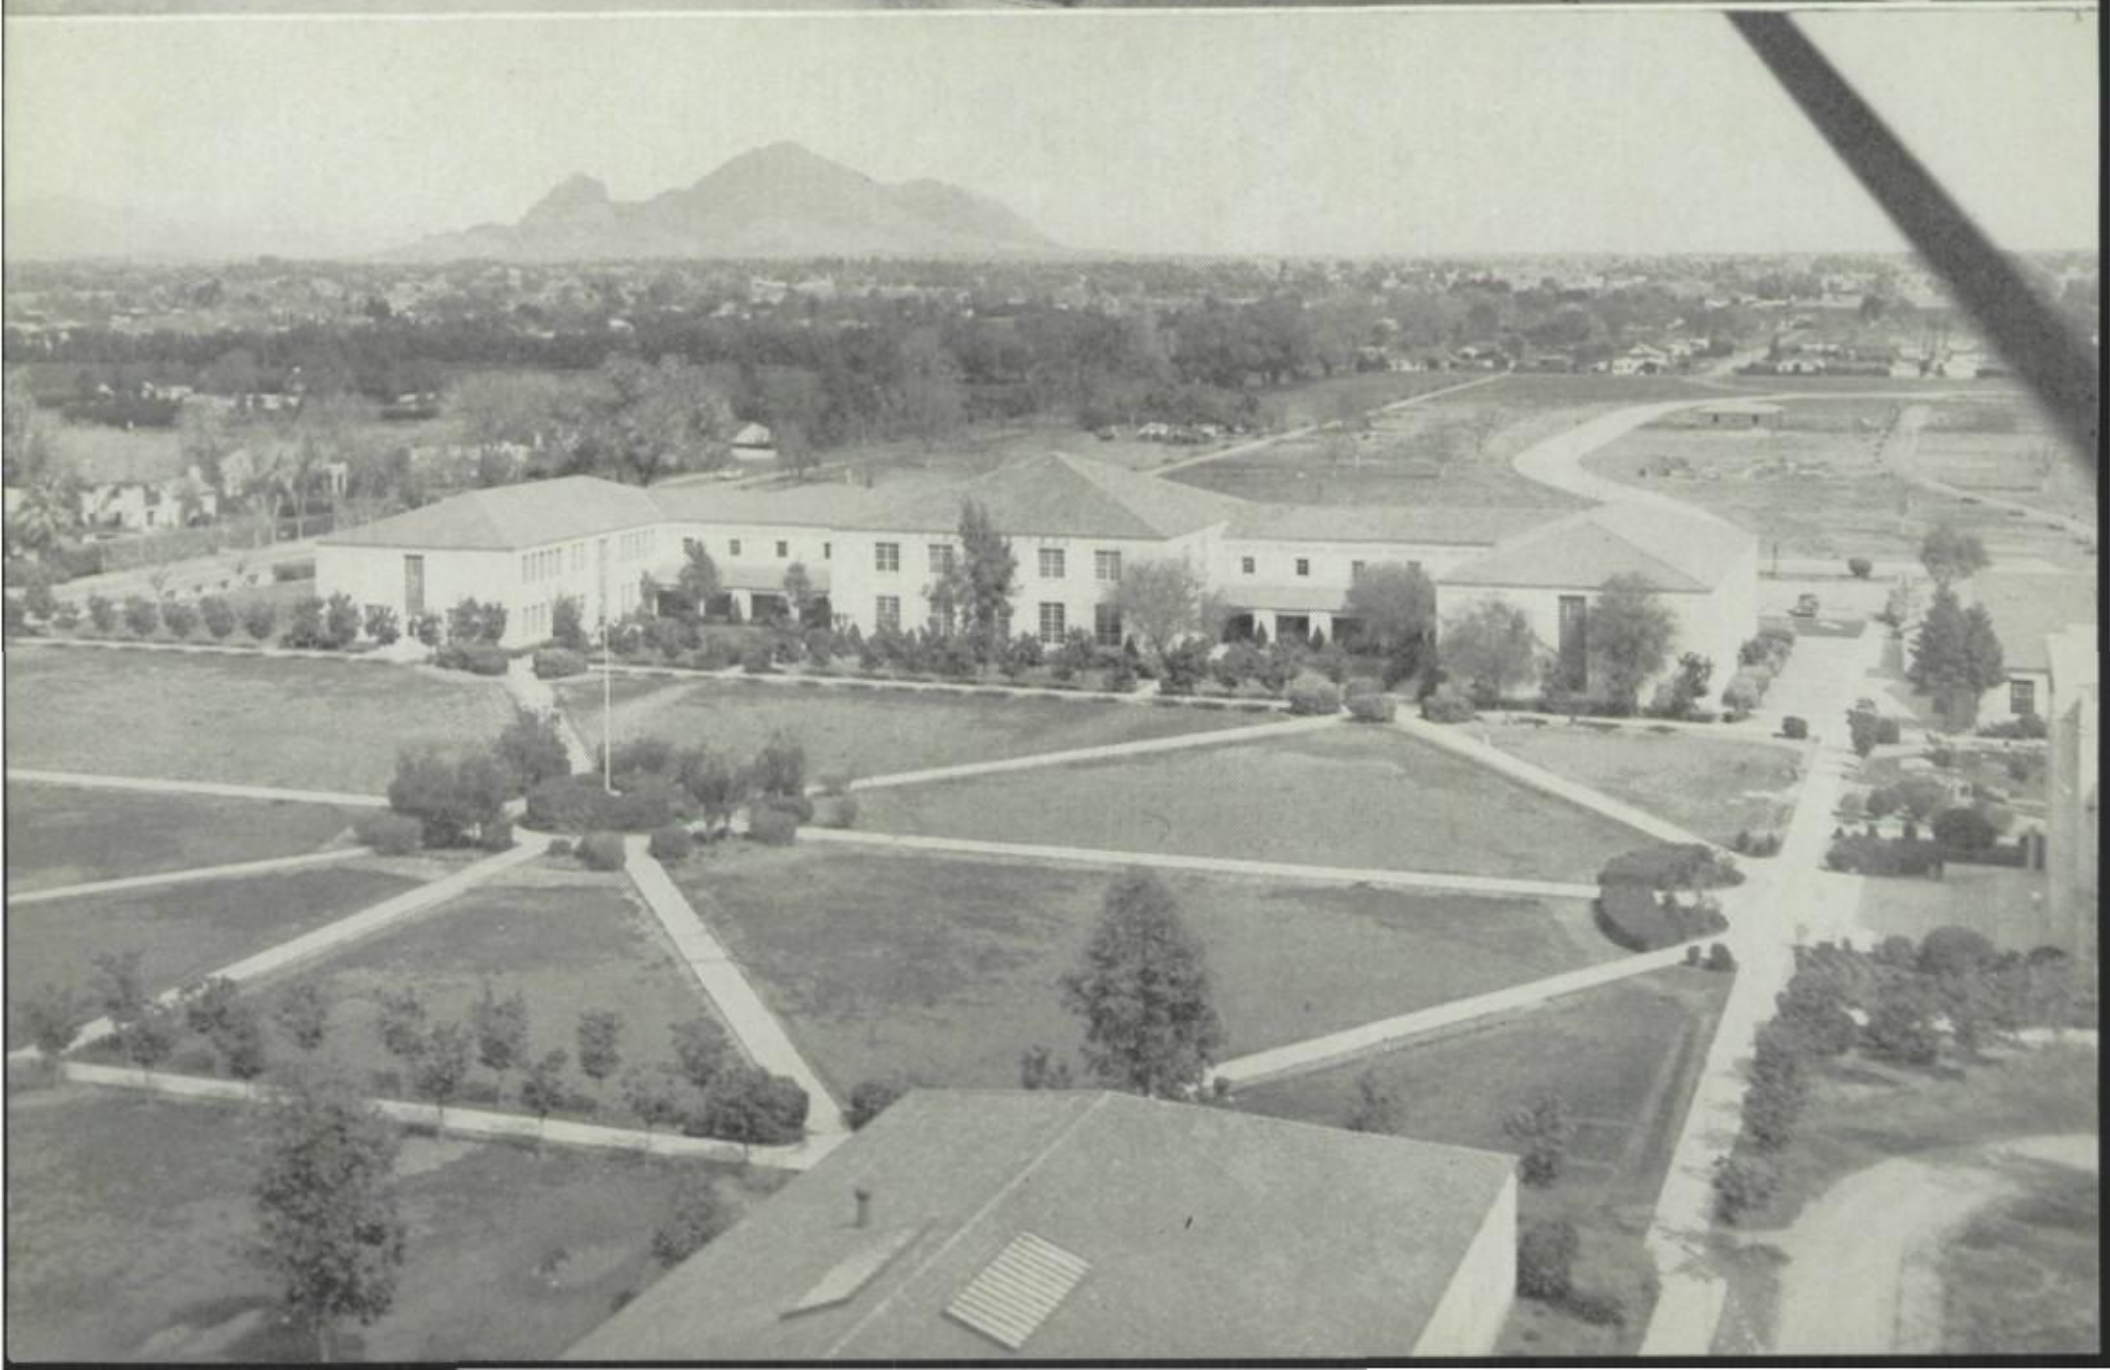
Marty Humphreys, Nancy Waite, and Malcolm Wharton inspect the new building project with satisfaction.

This year, 12 classrooms were added to the Science Building at a cost of $150,000. Also, a $65,000 extension to the cafeteria was made, which enables more efficient service.

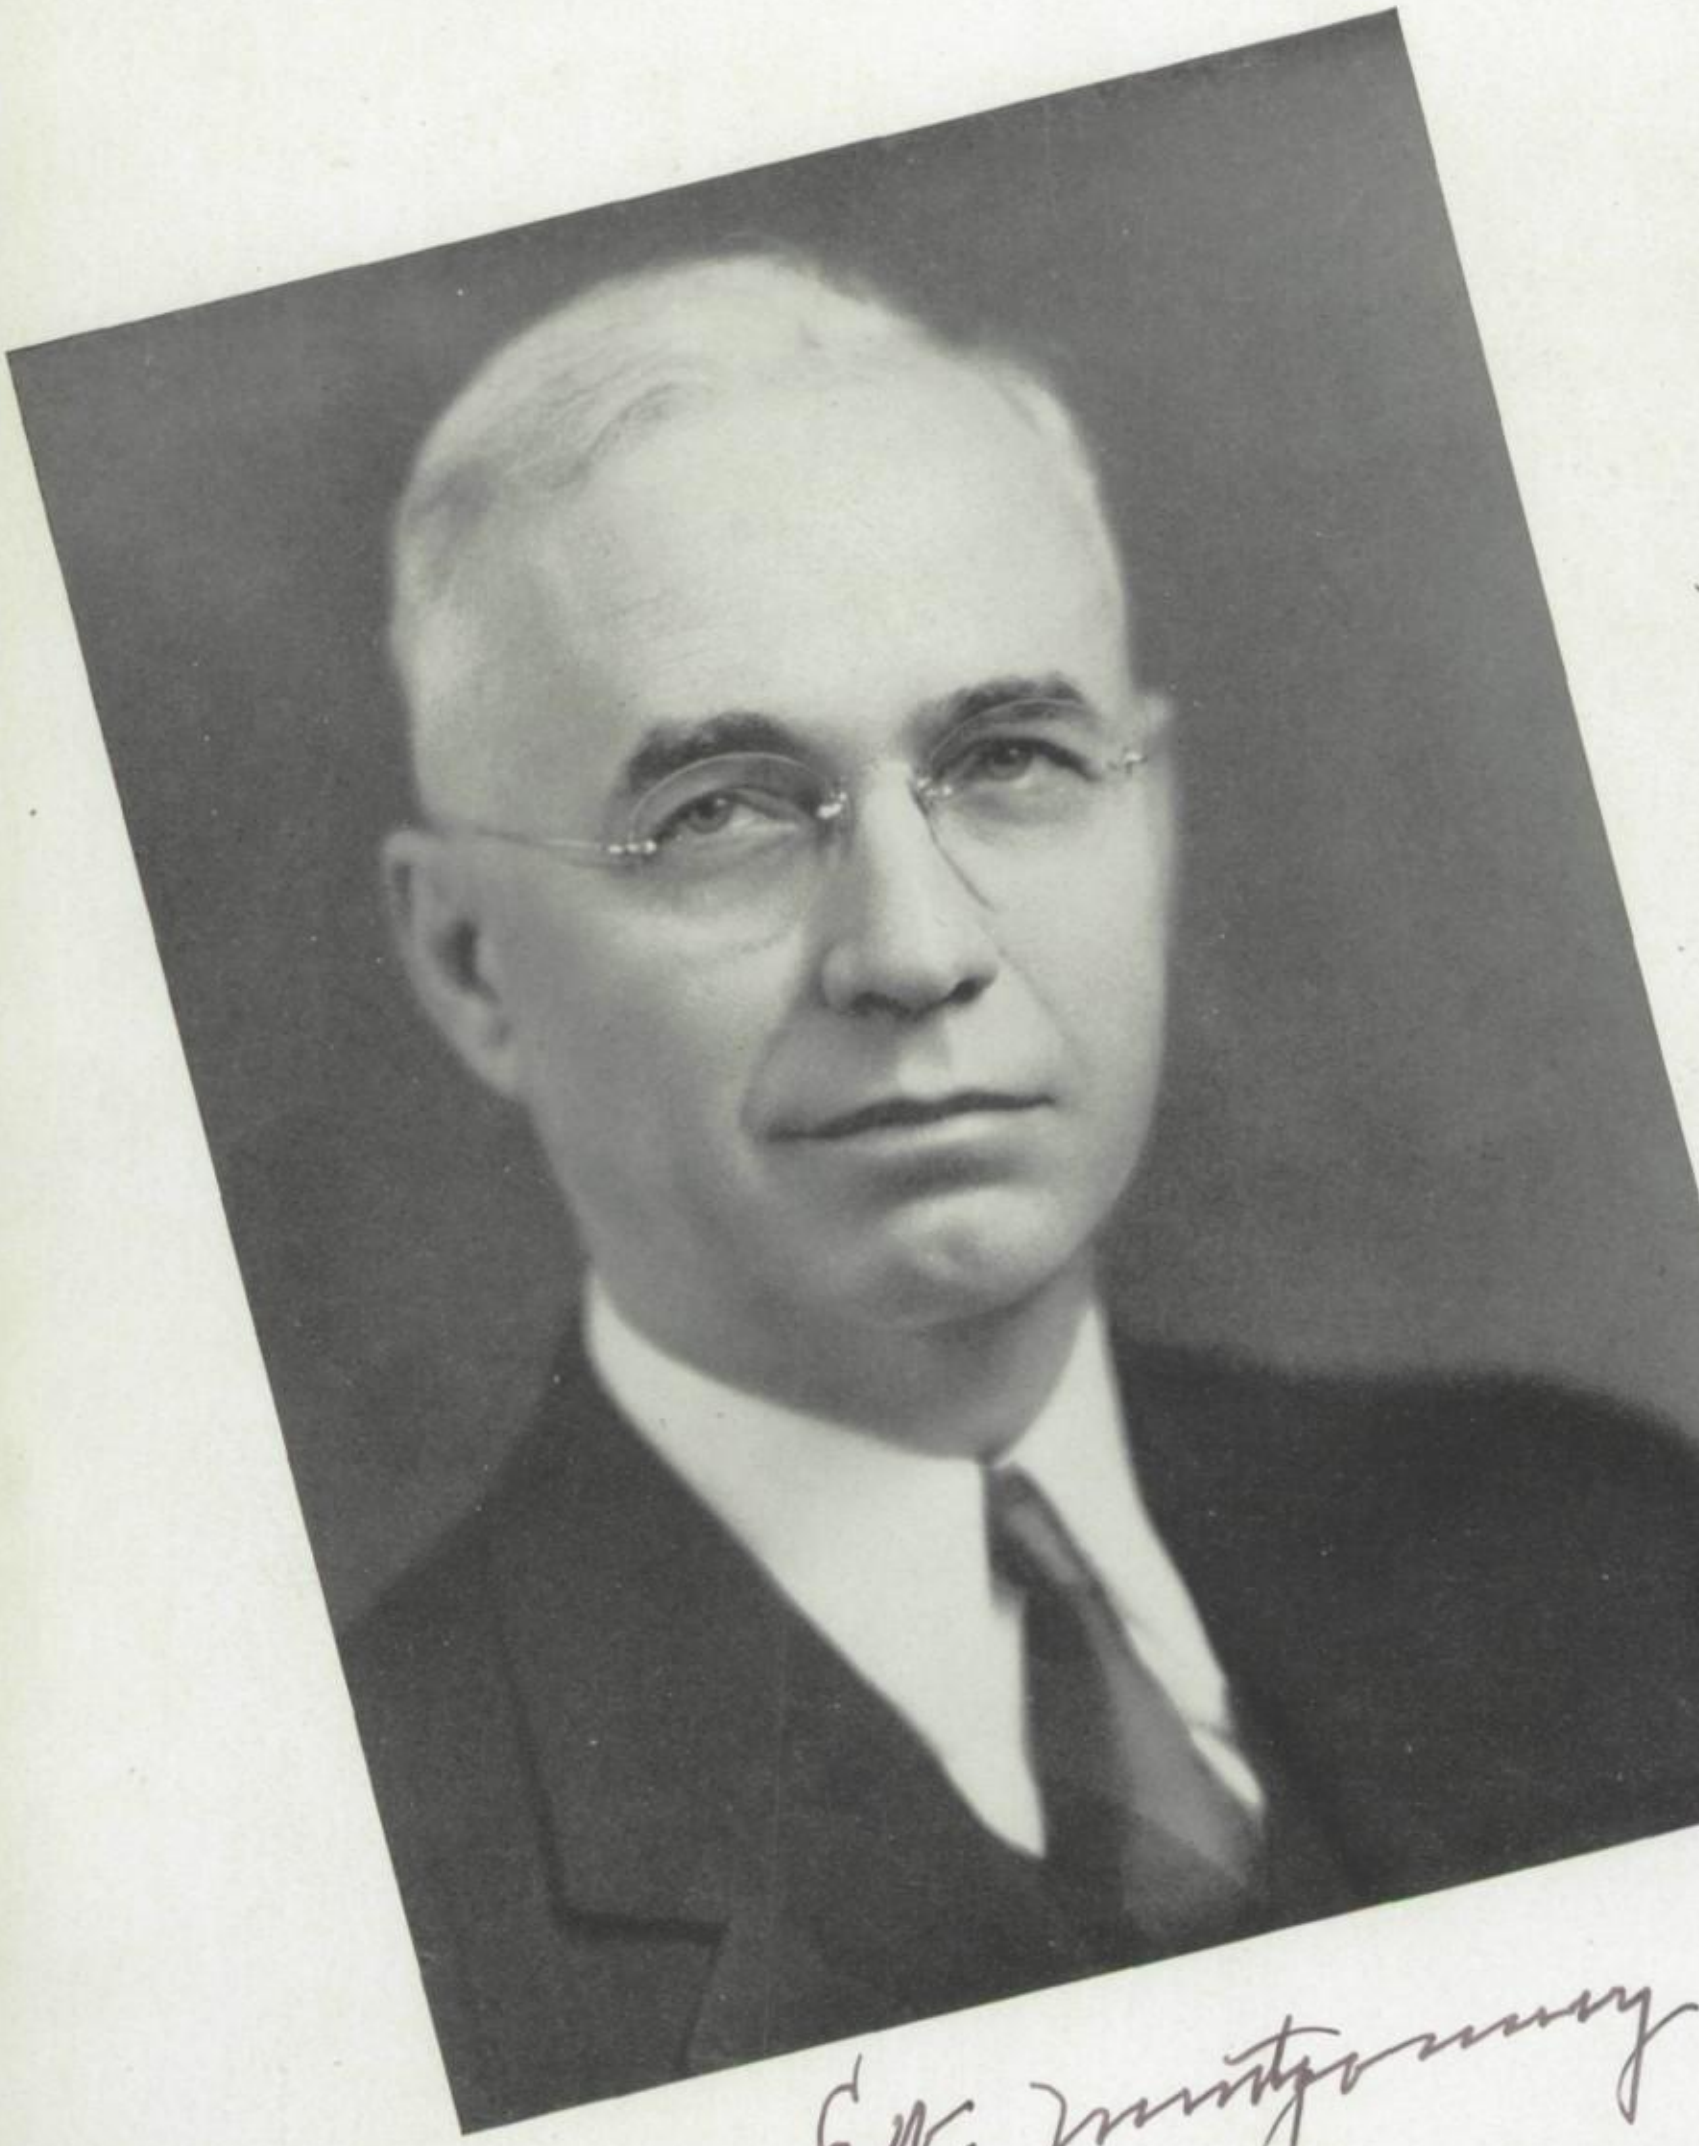








Administration



E. W. Montgomery

Although Mr. E. W. Montgomery, Superintendent of the Phoenix Union High Schools and President of the Junior College, is very busy with his numerous activities, he always finds time to lend a helping hand when faculty and students have problems. No job is too big or no task too great for this competent leader who glady offers advice and encouragement.

The Foremen

"THE RANGE BOSS GUIDES THE HERD"

Administering justice with sympathy and objectivity is the duty that Mr. Loyd C. Elliott, principal, has so successfully fulfilled. A guiding hand at North High, he is always ready to listen and offer advice.

In the picture above, Mr. Elliott prepares to read the morning bulletin over the public address system.

At right, he is presiding at a football pep assembly which was held last fall in the stadium.

Los Rancheros

The range must be run right, and it takes leaders to do it. The members of the Board of Education are the leaders in the community who realize the need of intelligent citizens of the future.

Much of the good reputation and advancement of our school is due to their guidance and effort.

This Board, which head all the Phoenix secondary schools, consisting of North Phoenix High School, Phoenix Union High School, Phoenix Technical School, Carver High School, as well as Phoenix Junior College, is made up of public-minded citizens who give their energy to the advancement of the schools.

The problems of running a school are many, but such men and women as Mr. A. F. Olney, Dr. Charles Burton, Dr. L. A. Eastburn, and Mrs. Jean Hansen are carrying on well, giving the students good guidance for the future. Mr. Olney, Curriculum Coordinator, has charge of the supervision of purchasing text books for the Phoenix High Schools, and promotes friendly relations between the schools through various intra-school activities. Dr. L. A. Eastburn, Director of Research and Guidance, advises and helps the students in collecting the curriculums that will give them the suitable knowledge and experience for their vocations of the future. Mrs. Hansen is the home counselor, and has done much in addition to her regular duties in the school and community by assisting the freshman in learning about the school.

Fence Riders

A ranch must always have good business managers, and North High is no exception. The business office is the center of activity throughout the day. Many representatives from the business world enter this office first, and thus this office serves as an example of North High's grand business efficiency.

Mr. Henry Lowe can often be seen in and out of the book store and business office, performing his many duties as business manager of North High. These activities include everything from taking fees to selling student's books.

Mrs. Mildred Hill has a very important job as Mr. Elliott's personal secretary. Letters are typed, files are kept, questions answered, and visitors welcomed by Mrs. Hill.

Mrs. Flora Darland has various assorted jobs. One of her main jobs is assisting the student assistant secretaries at the switch board or stencilling the daily bulletin and mimeographing it. The Lost and Found is a continual job for her, since students are constantly coming in to inquire about lost articles. She is always willing to help, though, and is a friend to all that need her.

Lines For Excuses

Definitely one of the busiest offices at North High is the registrar's office. The never tiring efforts of Mrs. Mary Westby and Miss Patricia Campbell have made it one of utmost efficiency.

Their duties, from 8:00 A. M. until the end of the school day, take in the issuing of absence permits, tardy excuses, and the never ending task of keeping up to date each student's permanent school record, which is kept on file for future reference after graduation.

The rules that each student is expected to carry out to the fullest extent are met with firmness as well as understanding.

Herd Leaders

ALWAYS LOOKING FORWARD are the studentbody leaders for this year, Vin Ciruzzi Mary Louise Turner, and Harold Dill.

These three had the hopful and determined out-look it took to make them the grand examples of Western leadership they proved to be.

Among the list of accomplishments of the student body of North High this year, was the continued building of the Mustang Corral, which took in the collecting of $3,000 at the end of the drive. Also drives for the War effort were popular, until the War ended; then there was a plea for the students to take part in the all important peace-time construction. This was done through old clothing drives, packing of Red Cross boxes, and the collection of suitable literature for less fortunate countries.

It all adds up to the fact that, under the leadership of these officers, the student body, as a whole, has added one more page in the progress of a very modern school. Now they are looking forward to helping build a modern world.

In the Old West, a man's gun and his ability to draw it quickly were the judge and jury, but here at North High we have self-governing justice through the Honor Court.

The Honor Court is made up of a group of reliable students elected the previous year for these duties. They strive to uphold the standard of our school by dealing with the students who are accused of breaking laws of school conduct. This group is composed of six judges, of which three are seniors, two are juniors, and one a sophomore, with a bailiff and secretary who receive the offices by appointment.

The Honor Committee is a committee made up of members of the executive committee and the honor court to try to find the causes and remedies of student body problems. Their work is invaluable to the school, because through their relations with students and teachers, they are able to analyze the problems.

Trail Leaders

Generosity is supposed to be characteristic of Westerners and the Service Chairmen help to prove its truth by giving time and work prodding their homerooms into doing worthwhile projects.

One student out of each homeroom is chosen to serve as a service chairman to select a project for the class to work on during the semester and to see that it is carried out. Many homerooms have made writing port-folios, craft wagons, ash stands, folding bed trays and other things.

The National Junior Red Cross has asked North Phoenix High School to supply certain necessary articles for the needy. The home rooms have done an excellent job in this.

Good fellowship is the aim of the Boys' Alliance, and its activities point toward making the school more friendly, a place where the old six-shooter may be thrown on the table permanently.

This year's executive department has proved to be a very successful hard-working group. They have spent numerous hours planning Red Cross relief drives, book donations to Russia, and campaigns for the Mustang Corral.

They have set an excellent example, which indicates a bright future for them and a fine standard to live up to in coming school years.

To this end they have had many undertakings this year—sending Christmas Cards to former Mustangs overseas, selling bonds and stamps, and many other things.

The Executive board of the Boys' Alliance is composed of the president, Ed Wasielewski; vice-president, Victor Randolph; secretary-treasurer, Stanley Hull; publicity chairman, Louie Bohn and Bill Eaton; service chairmen, Jim Karam and Forest Hill; social chairman, Wally Perry and Paul Mercer. The legislative body of the Boys' Alliance, the Mustang Congress, is made up of representatives from each home room. Faculty advisor of the organization is Dean Anderson.

The Mustang Congress, the governing body of the Boys' Alliance, has worked this year with the Girls' League in connection with the Girls' League Vaudeville and with the rest of the student body in the production of the All School Play, under the auspices of Miss Howatt and Miss Morgan.

Climaxing this year's activities the Boys' Alliance presented its first annual formal ball, Moonlight and Memories.

One of North High's most worthy activities is the Girls' League, the organization through which girls enjoy good works and good times together. Each girl automatically becomes a member of the League upon entering school and is expected to take part in its activities.

The League starts the social season with the gala Blue and Silver Ball, the dance where Cinderellas ask their Prince Charmings, and a date bureau and used-formal shop are provided so that no girl need be excluded from the affair.

There are no quilting parties and husking bees, but in the spring is the Every Girls' dinner, attended by the girls in homeroom groups. Since it is "pot-luck" style, each room decides its own menu, and decorates its own table.

The "big sister" campaign is not to be forgotten. The lost and forlorn freshmen are ushered around school by upperclassmen who explain the functions of North High.

Last, but not least is the Coed Dance, the girl-date-girl dance where fun is had by all.

Right: Nancy Beaman sings in the north High Girl's League program for the Girl's League Convention last fall.

Heading the Girls' League this year were Pat Griffen, president, Catherine Hill, vice-president; Shirley Smith, secretary; and Gyrene Grammer, treasurer, along with a representative from each of the four classes, a representative from the uniform committee, and the president of the council, from the cabinet.

The Girls' League sponsors all activities such as teachers' teas, welcoming parties for freshmen, vaudevilles and Blue and Silver Ball.

MEMORIAL COMMITTEE. Pedrick, Turner, Bennett, Grammar, Benson.

The Memorial Committee was first organized in 1942 with a scheme to collect a fund, amounting to a penny per student enrolled, to be used in constructing a memorial.

The memorial will bear names of boys and girls who lost their lives and, if space permits, it will also bear the names of those wounded.

The Student Council declared they wanted something functional rather than a statute to be posted.

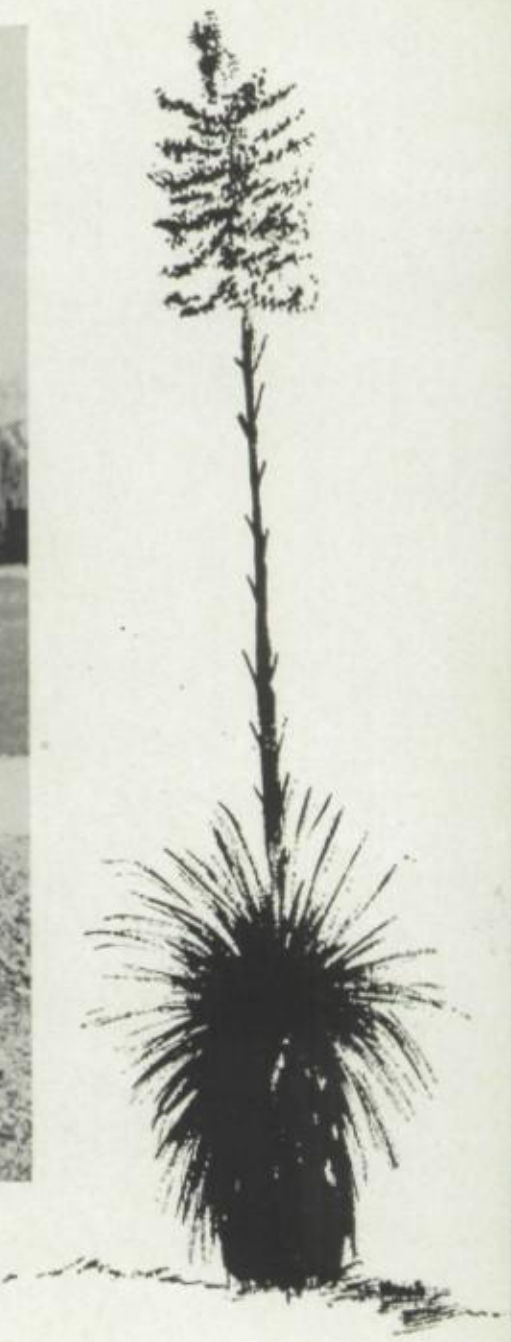
The Social Committee plans bigger and better "doin's" for the Mustangs. This year the Social Committee has really outdone itself, and Mustangs have stomped to "shindigs galore."

SOCIAL COMMITTEE. Front row: Jennings, Hicks, Hicks, King, Wasielewski, Schlitz. Second row: Janson, Mrs. Rasbury, Best, Goodson, Brooks, Montgomery, Wasielewski.

UNIFORM COMMITTEE. Bailey, Leppla, Wells, Cohen, Padget, Rosenberg, Shimmel.

With Miss Ruth Contris as its leader, the dress committee, composed of girls representing each class, carries on the traditions of North High by seeing that every girl dresses in the required skirts and blouses.

MAINTENANCE STAFF: First Row: J. C. Speake, C. Brown, C. J. Jeffrey, J. J. Hudson Assistant Engineer, M. Feihle, Engineer. Second Row: E. W. Laucher, W. F. Butler, J. R. Hopkins, H. B. Hall, G. A. Cottrell.

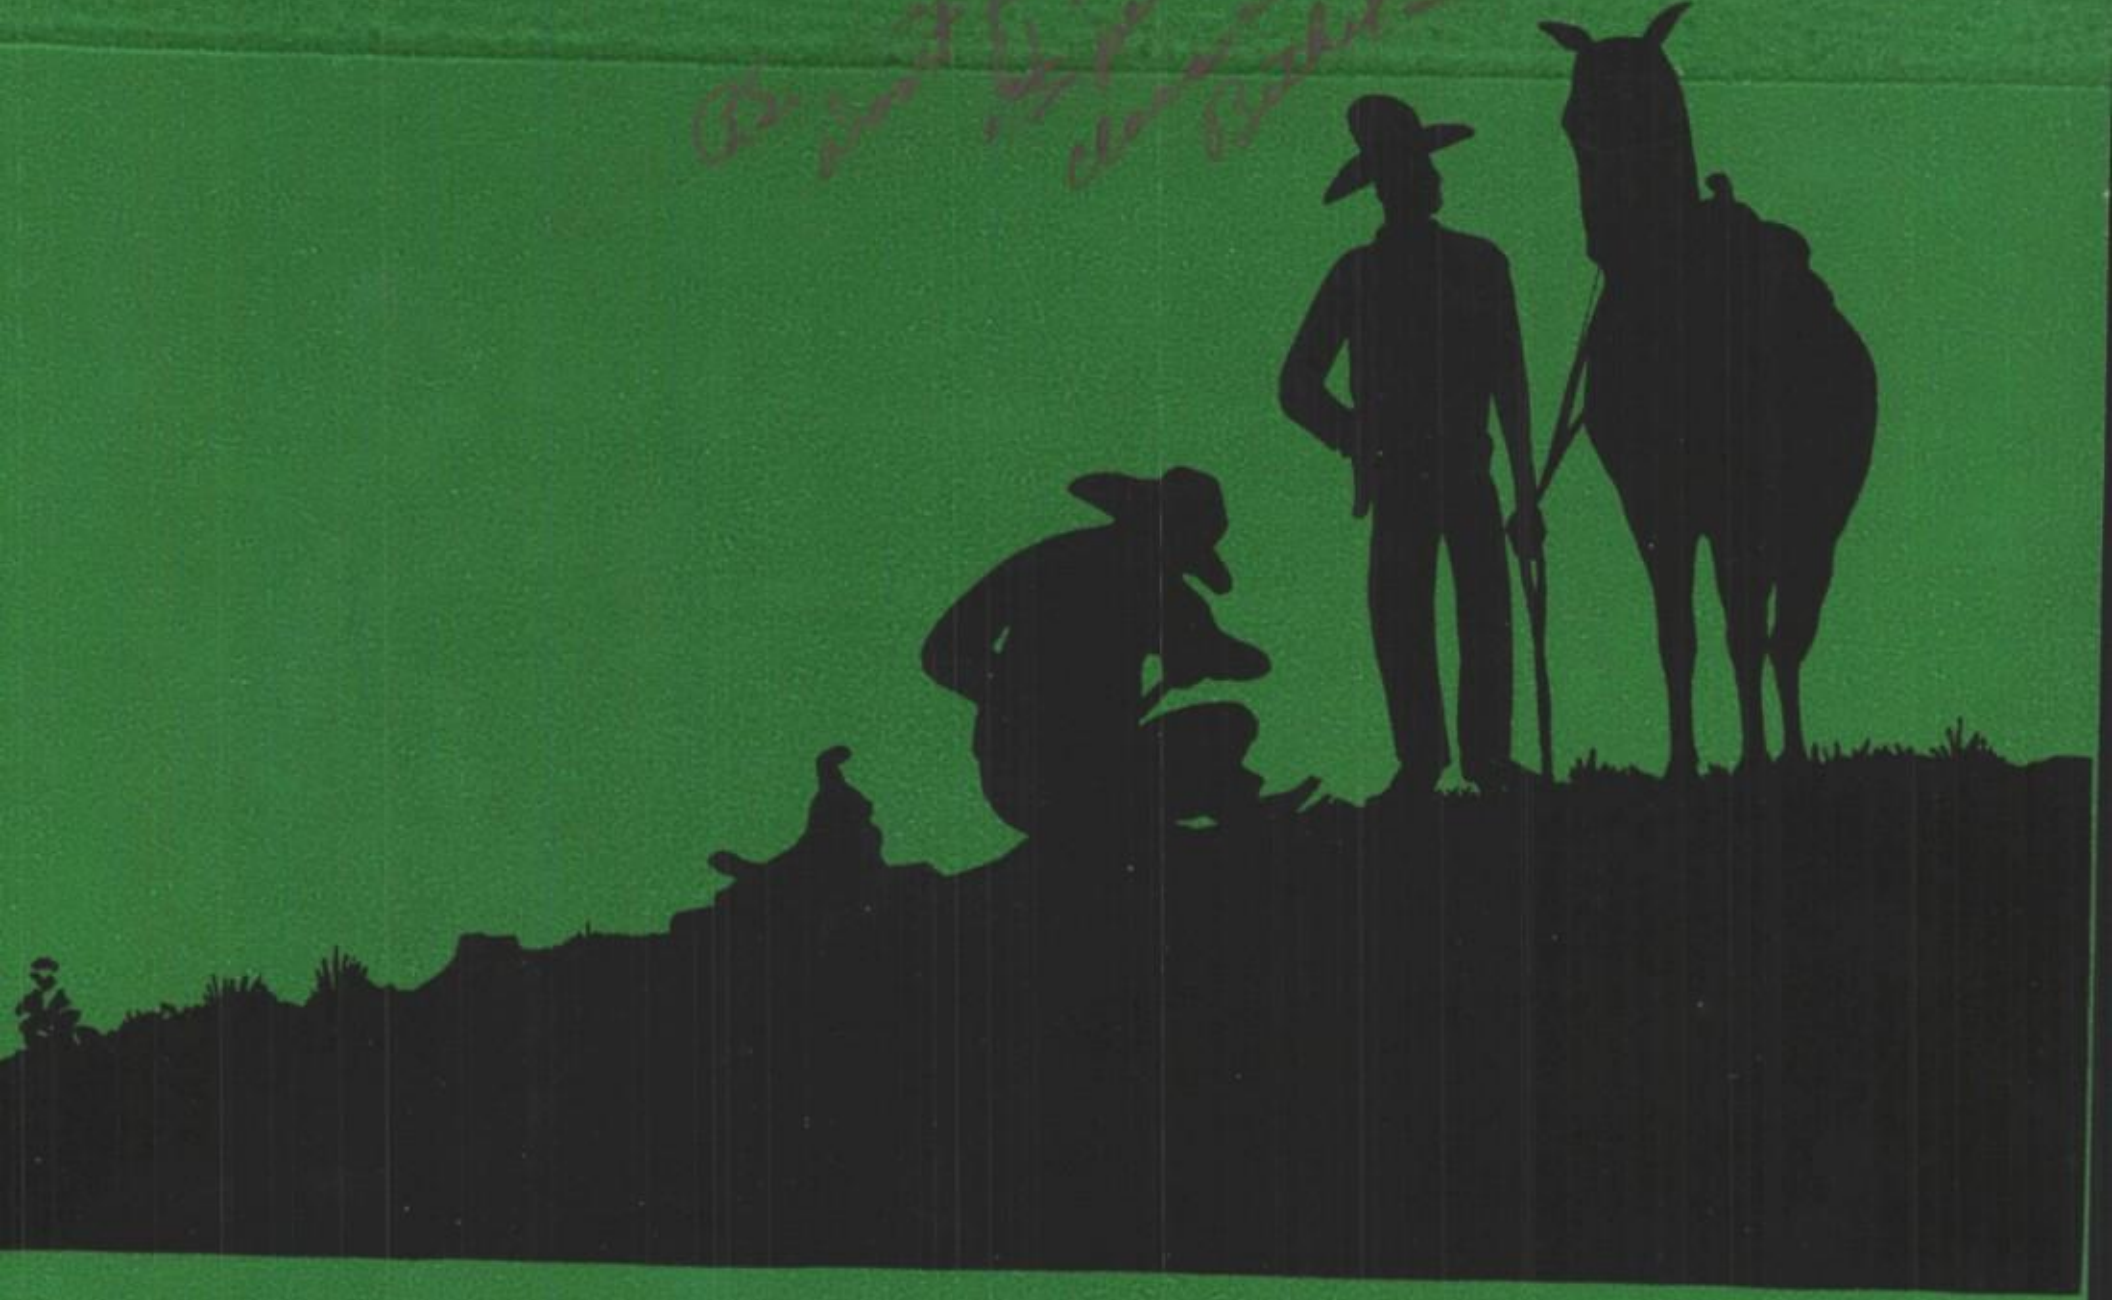


Below: Mrs. Ruth Smith is assisted by Mrs. Schipper, Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. Williams, and Mrs. Loury in the cafeteria.

The completion of the new wing stand in our cafeteria will now enable a greater number of students to be quickly and efficiently handled. Under the management of Mrs. Ruth Smith, the kitchen staff succeeded in serving lunches even while the building of the cafeteria was going on. Despite food shortages the students have been served food which is in keeping with the basic seven chart.

The North High janitorial staff is to be commended for its work. Taking care of the lawns, keeping the buildings clean, breaking locks from lockers, tending to the heating system, and replacing broken windows are only a few of the things that this staff takes care of. Even with all of these duties, our janitors always are pleasant and courteous to the students and teachers.

Teachers



At top left is Mr. F. V. Brown, "Bud" to us westerners. Who else but "Bud" could call square dances, and what is a rodeo or horse-show without him? And who else has such a hay rack?

Wranglers

Miss Edna Ruth Contris is shown (upper right) at her desk checking Geometry papers and wondering where some of the theroems she gets come from.

Mr. Carter (lower left) pauses during his class of business training to pose for the Hoofbeat photographer.

Mrs. Virgie Stevens, Miss Anna Lou Yancy, and Mrs. Gwendolyn Beaver, home economics teachers are seen conversing with Mr. Draper who teaches agriculture.

Calf Ropers

What are they watching? Mr. N. D. Marker, Mrs. Elsie Chason and Mr. C. A. Brown. It could be that they are looking at the new addition to the Science Building, and wishing that they would or could have a new room in it.

Bronc Riders

Here we have coaches Don Pace, W. R. Caldwell, and Claire Van Hoorebeck. A lot of credit goes to them for their strenuous coaching of our winning teams.

Miss Genevieve Carlton and Mrs. Marion Reddic, the librarians, are shown together in their office adjoining the library reading room and study hall.

Los Vaqueros

Miss Anna Schlichter, who teaches second and third year Latin, is the sponser of the ABC Club and Legio Honoris. According to Miss Schlichter's students, her favorite subject is the life of Caeser, both military and private.

Shown proudly reviewing his military department on inspection day is Major John Magee.

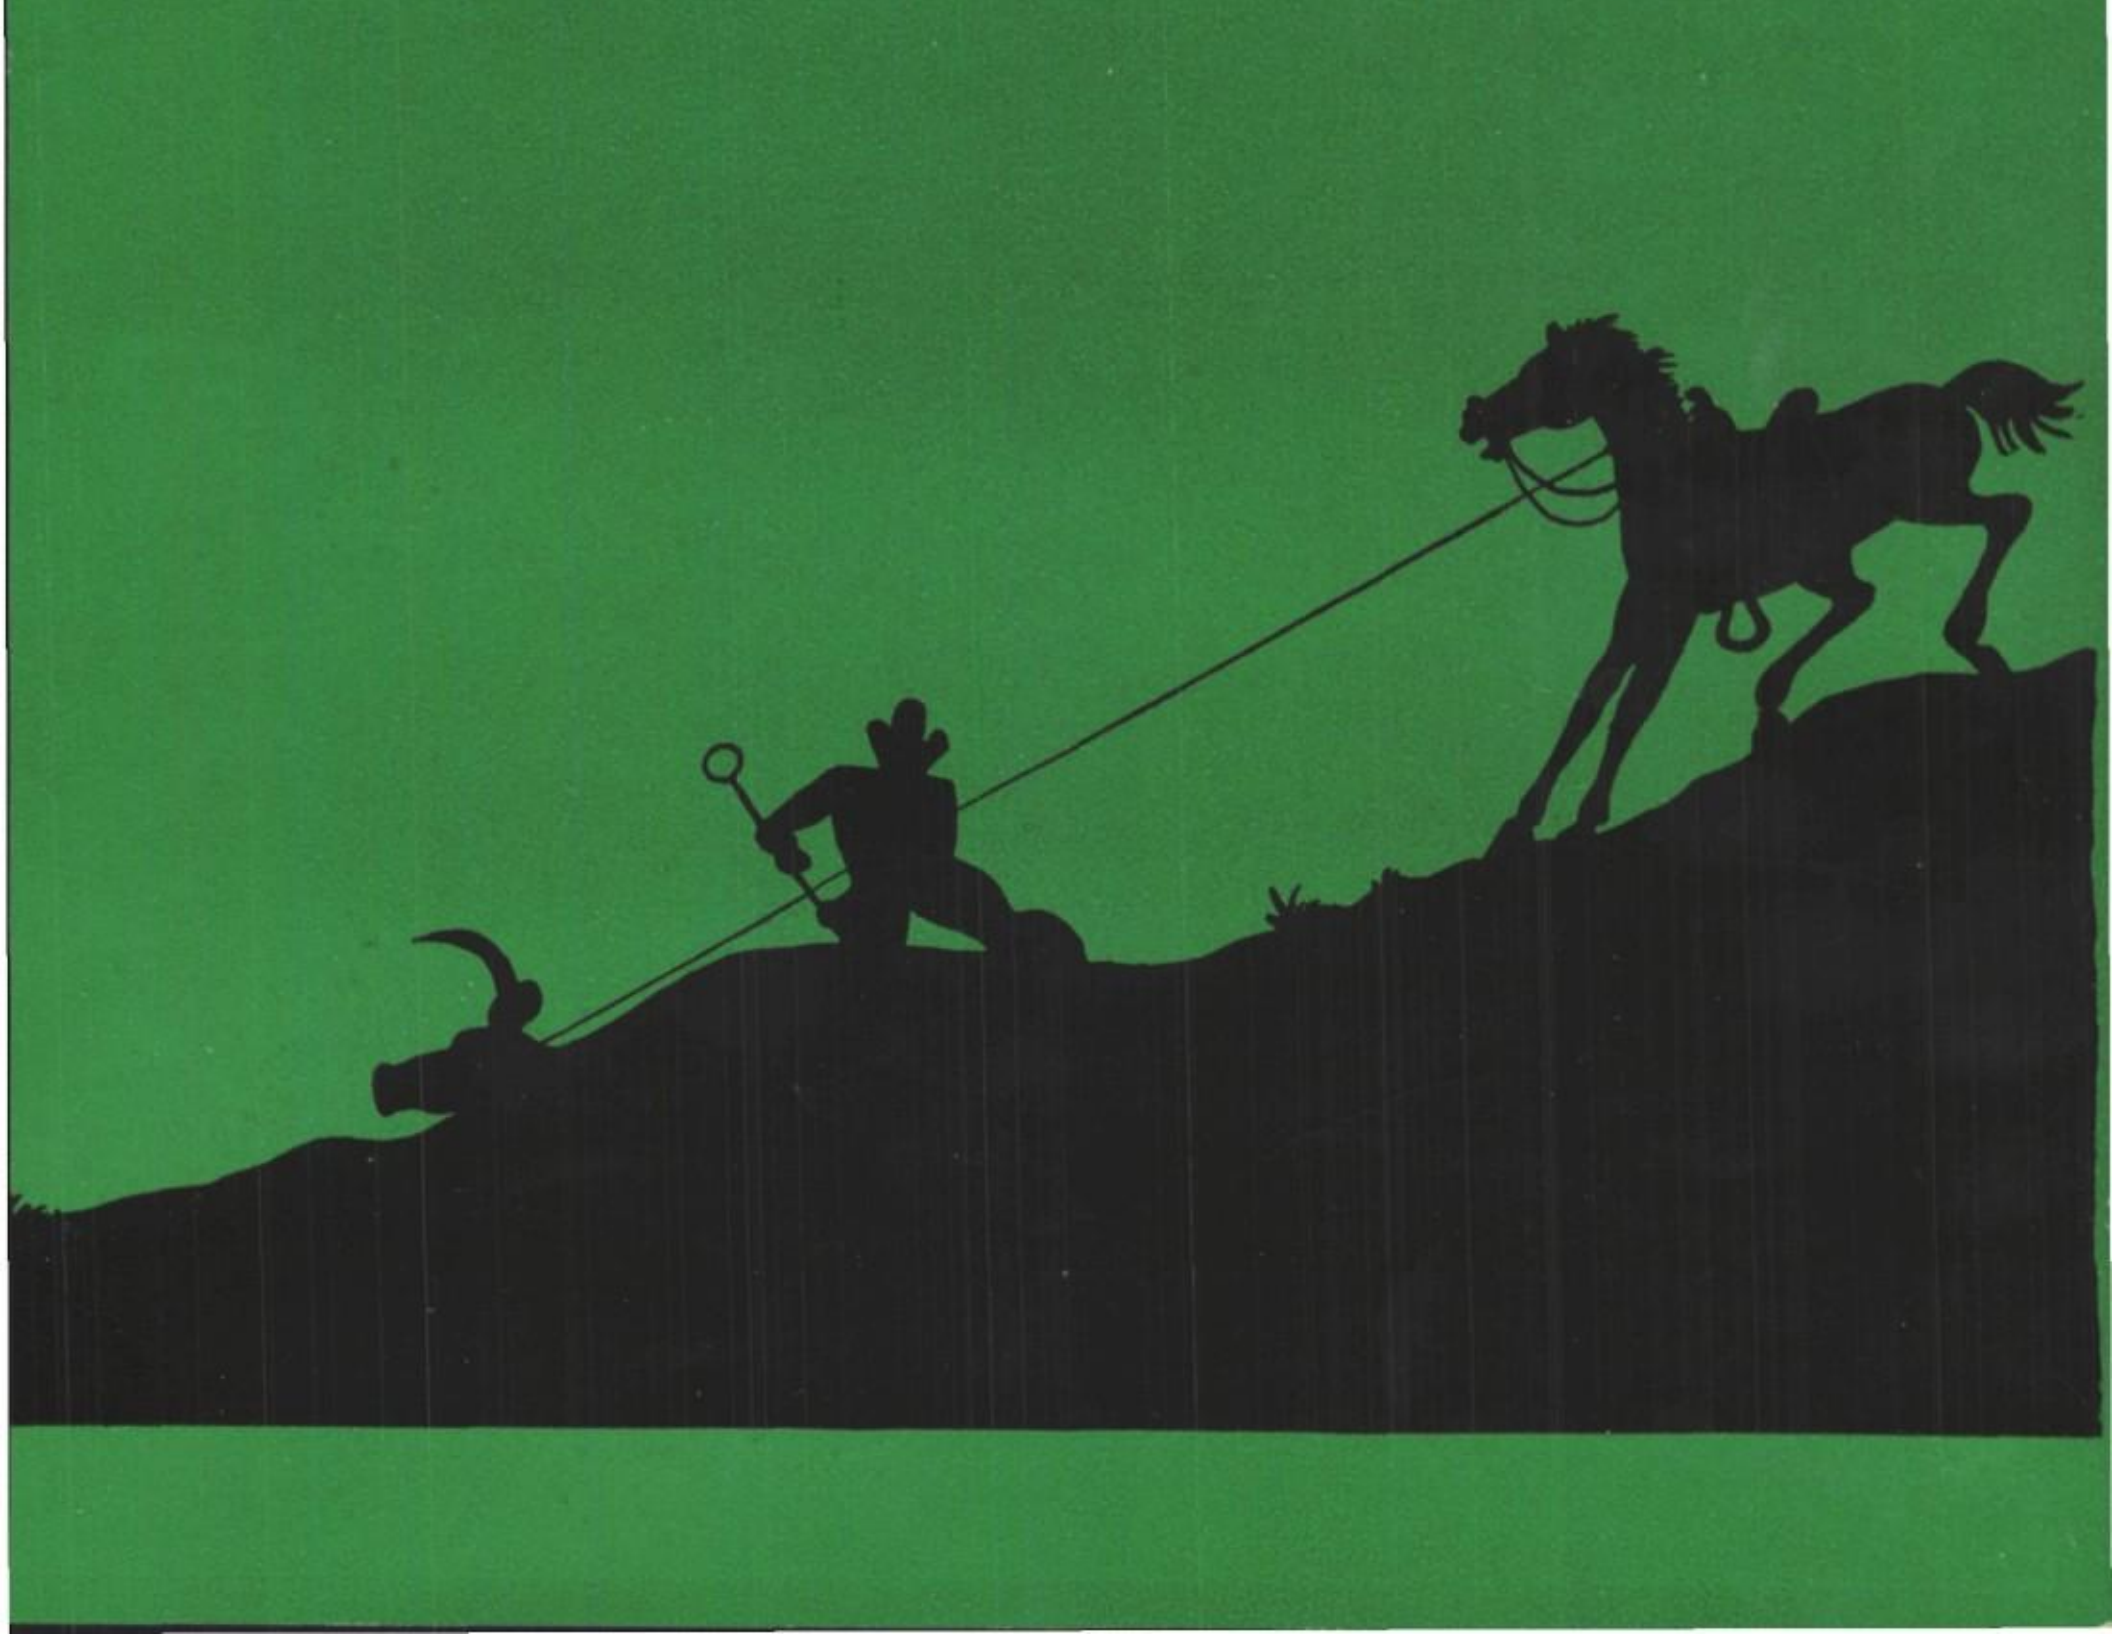
It is a mechanized West, according to Mr. Vernon Hathcock, Mr. Arthur Hawk, and Mr. Fred K. Schade, all of whom are in the Industrial Arts Department. In the lower right are Miss Catherine Wilkinson and Mrs. Bettie Phelps, Physical Education teachers.

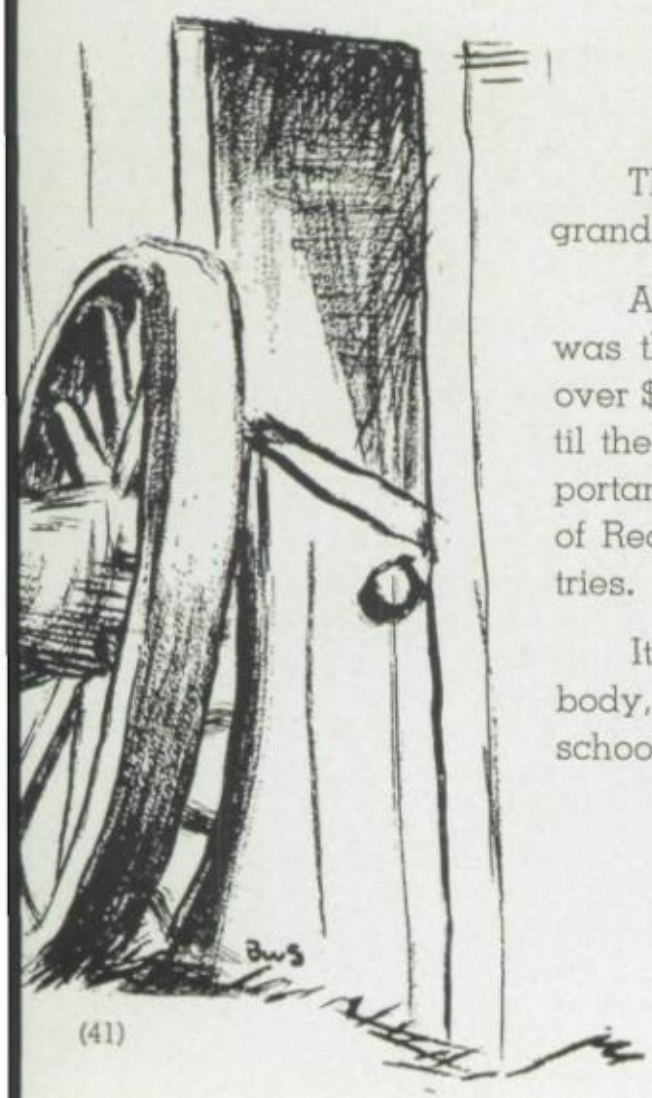
Classes



Mossbacks

The Mustangs are handin' out the victuals. These seniors are dressed for the occasion and gourging themselves with hot dogs and cokes. Note Miss Ruth Adams gesticulating. Wonder what the conversation could be? The corral is the meeting place for many a happy party. No one has to be hog tied in order to get him to this corral.

Seniors are Old and Wise—Lead the Herd



These three had the hopeful and determined out-look it took to make them the grand examples of Western leadership they proved to be.

Among the list of accomplishments of the student body of North High this year, was the continued building of the Mustang Corral, which took in the collecting of over $3,000 at the end of the drive. Juniors Are At Last Upperclassmen and Ready to Help Lead

This year the junior class has prospered and grown. They leave with happy anticipation toward next year when they, as seniors, will set examples for the under classmen.

The clothing drive, the Red Cross works, and the Mustang Corral all were benefited by the enthusiastic response of the juniors. Then the not-to-be-forgotten junior-senior play and the all-school play would not have been a success without their talent.

The junior class salutes its leaders, Raymond Williams, president; Linda Brooks, vice-president; and Camille King, secretary,treasurer, who have been responsible for much of the success of the juniors this year.

Yearlings

Sophomores Think They're Big, But They are Still Green

Although Sophomores think they are sophisticated, and although they have successfully sold elevator tickets, assembly tickets, and permanent locker permits to bewildered freshmen, they themselves have a few things to learn. But they have two years in which to learn them and this year's class of "upper classmen" is really a wonderful group.

They have done a grand job of upholding the standards of their class and school, and were one of the foremost contributors to the Mustang Corral.

They not only have shone in school projects, but National drives, such as the clothing drive and infantile paralysis and tuberculosis funds.

We can be proud of our class of '48.

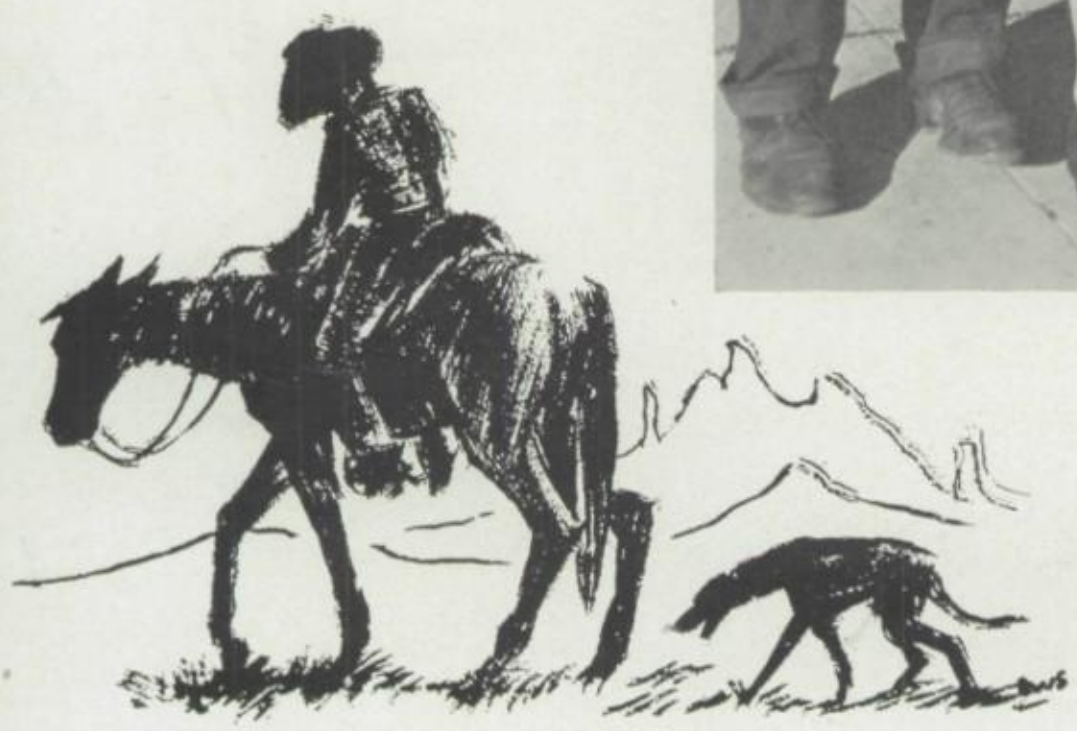
Dogies

Freshmen Aren't so Green as They Seem



This year's Freshmen are not really green young mavericks, although they were a little lost at the beginning of the year. It didn't take them long to learn the school songs and yells, and at the games they entered into the North High school spirit with unrestrained enthusiasm.

Raeburn Dezember, Freshman class president; Robert Brown, vice-president; and Dorothy Drummond, secretary-treasurer, have been able and willing workers on all the school's many projects and will be in the future, able to plan and carry out projects to keep North High "the honor school of the West."

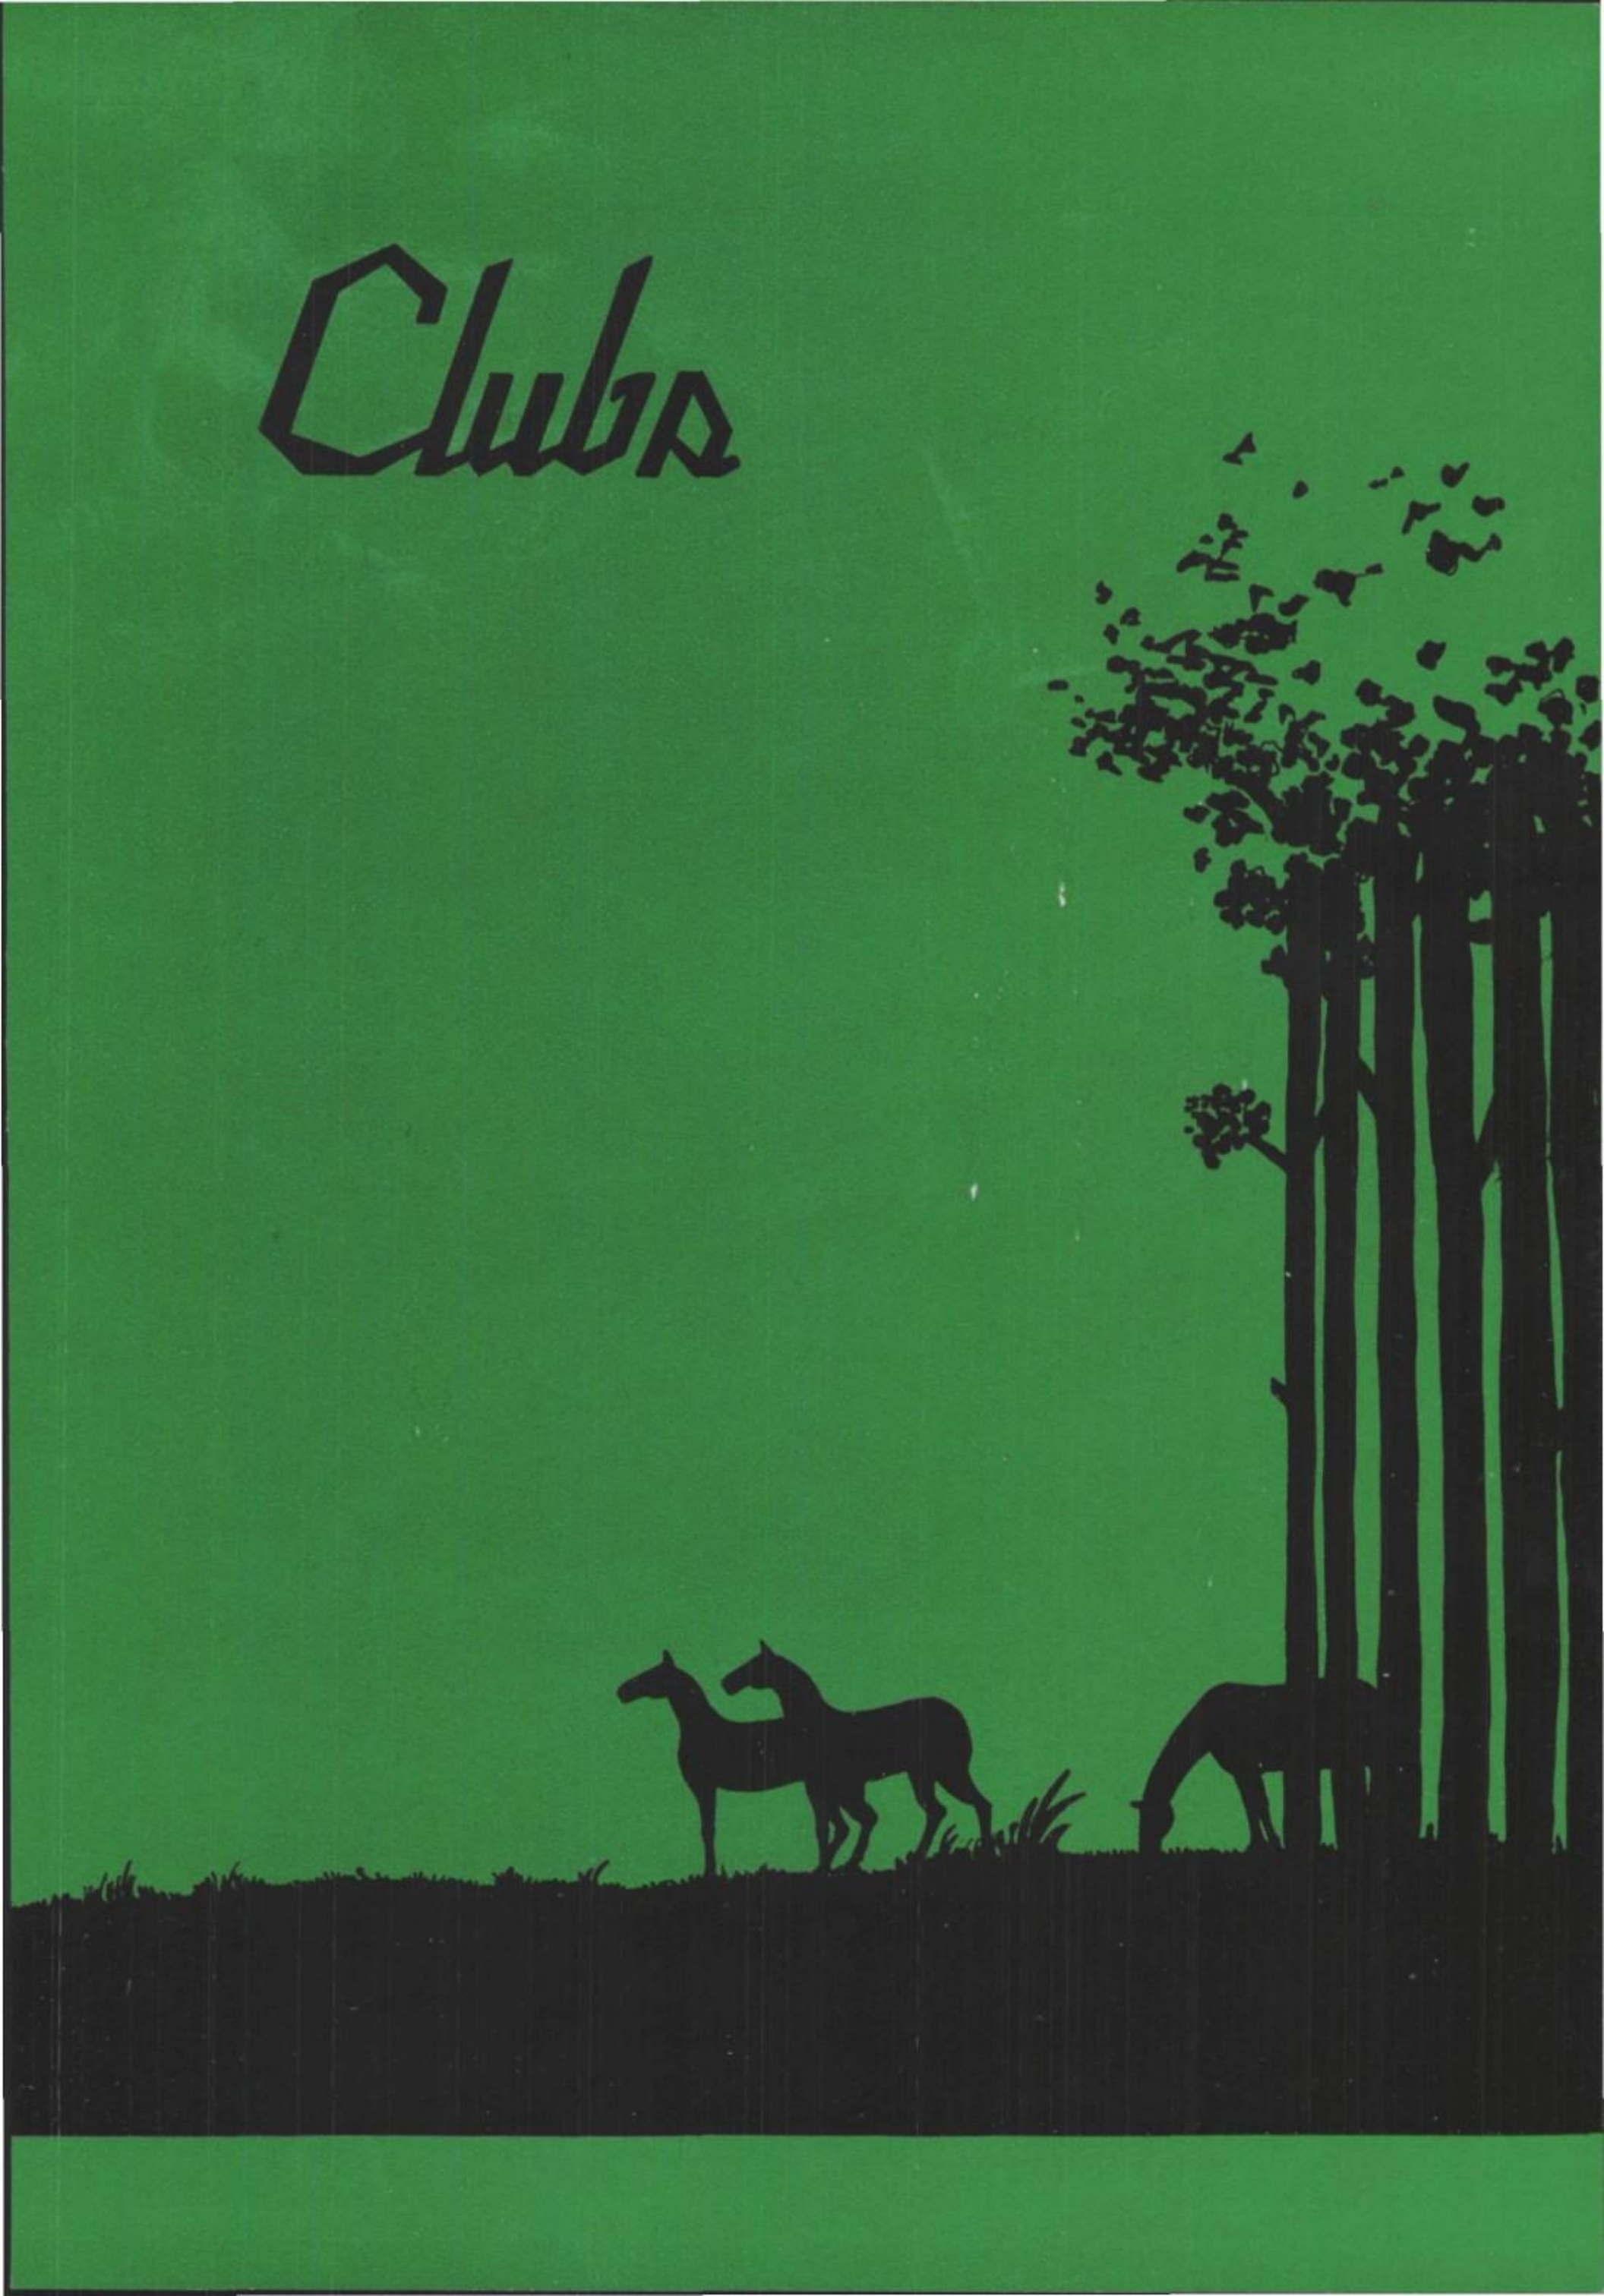
Clubs



Phyllis Staut, Douglas Cook, Jean Bingham, Iris Chester, Peggy Scott, Tommy Hurley, and Jean Laughlin pack books for Russia.

Iris Chester, chairman of the Service Chairmen is putting another "Book for Russia" in the bookcase. Collecting books for Russia is just one of the many service projects which the students of North High have undertaken.

Mr. Stanley Cardon's homeroom is shown here with their collection of clothes. Clothes, food, and money were collected by the different homerooms and sent to Norway, France, Holland, Greece, and Italy.

"Hands"

Miss Isabelle Howatt's homeroom is shown packing boxes that are to be sent to Norway, Holland, and France. Miss Howatt is holding a box that is ready to send, and Marilyn Smith is keeping a list of what is going into the box that is being packed.

Miss Ruth Adams' homeroom collected stuffed animals for their service project. Boys and girls cut material, and stuffed and sewed these animals for the Red Cross. They were distributed to children of needy families all over the country.

Third Row: Buner, Bradly, Hartup, Blair, Sobol, Sherrill, Steward, Smith, Murphy, Miller, Gray, Snell, Jennings, Wylie, Davie, Randolph, Sebree, Brown, Kesterson, Mercer, Johnson, Stevenson, Barnett, Johnson, Fogal.

The Live Wires Club, under the supervision of Mr. Vernon Hathcock, offers an opportunity for students interested in radio to go through local broadcasting stations and study different conditions therein. They also hold two way radio broadcasting demonstrations.

Legio Honoris, under the sponsorship of Miss Anna Schlicter, is an organization of second year Latin students who find entertainment in exercising their skill in speaking the language of the ancient Roman Empire.

To create Christian ideals and good fellowship in the home, the school, and the community is the purpose of the Hi-Y Club. The sponsors of the club are Mr. Thomas Inman of North Phoenix, and Mr. Edward Shaw of the YMCA.

The president of the club was Harold Dill, and Larry Reader was vice-president.

If you hear an explosion in the Science Building during the club periods, it's probably the result of an experiment made by a member of the Science Club who is trying to find out what makes an atom bomb explode.

The Club is under the supervision of Mr. C. A. Brown, who teaches chemistry. Bill Mooney was president of the club this year.

The students, possessing the true western spirit, are always eager to try something new. The method of teaching Russian is altogether new. Since no Russian speaking teacher was available, self-instruction records have been obtained and under the guidance of Mr. Frederick Mitchell, the students are going ahead with their study of Russian.

Any parent will testify to the fact that high school students love to talk—and talk they will even if they must join a speech club to do so.

The North Phoenix Speech Club is more than a mere "gab-session" however, and over a period of years has earned the reputation of walking off with top honors in any event in which they participate.

The Howdy Pardners have helped new girls to establish themselves here by holding various functions so that girls could get acquainted.

Serving as officials are president, Marilyn Broberg; vice-president, Mary Bergstresser; secretary-treasurer, Lael Muehlebach; and publicity, Elaine Bein.

The club is under the supervision of Miss Miriam Gathings.

The Auditorium Club has aided in ushering firstnighters to our school programs. This group of girls also served as ushers in the "Town Hall Meetings of the Air."

Serving as officers of the club are Captain Shirley Smith and Co-Captain Evelyn Duncan; Miss Miriam Gathings is the club's advisor.

Rare, spicy entertainment with a professional touch—we found both in one of the dramatic highlights of the year, the junior-senior play, thanks to the fine direction of Miss Lucille Hicks.

Choosing for their play, the broadway hit of last year, the upperclassmen presented "Janie", with all of its love entanglements, business deals and wild parties.

The plot revolved around the antics of Janie Colburn, who found it a problem to decide between the handsome soldier, Dick Lawrence, who swept her off her feet and her tried and true, home town boy friend, Scooper Nolan.

They were delighted audiences who filed out of the auditorium on the nights of November 9 and 10 and whose general comment was "The best high school play ever presented."

The Rodeo

The stage in the auditorium of North High provides entertainment for the school and interesting hours for many. It gives students an opportunity to "tread the boards" and absorb the love of the theater in their blood. In presenting assemblies and other productions, they gain valuable experience.

The Stadium Club, under the direction of Mr. C. A. Brown, serves the school and football fans by ushering at the games. During their spare time, they also kept score.

The North High Future Farmers have led the chapter in great honors this year by their outstanding garden projects. The Club has been under the leadership of Fred Olsson, with Mr. Fred Draper as their sponsor.

"Welcome back," is the thought in each student's mind when he chances to pass one of the returned fellows from the service.

We all say "Thanks fellows," and hope that they can match up on the years they have lost in regard to their studies. While we are on the subject, we will have to admit that they are raising the standards of the classes they are in. Eager, alert, co-operative—should sum them up.

The Thespians, our aspiring actors and actresses, under the direction of Miss Lucille Hicks, meet to discuss the problems and opportunities in all phases of the stage. Thespians try not only to gain experience for professions, but also to develop a taste and appreciation for drama.

The ABC, Good Friends of Cicero, is The Third Year Latin Class under the leadership of Miss Anna Schlicter.

LIBRARY CLUB. Front row: Kersh, Kendall, Hein, Call, Larson, Mercer. Second row: Wood, Matuseureiz, McCulloch, Brown, Buckles, Maxwell. Third row: Hayes, Janssen, Heard, Smithson, Young, Reese.

The Library Club, under the direction of Miss Genevieve Carlton and Mrs. Marian Reddic, is limited to girls who are taking library training. They get together to know one another better and share interests in books. Each Christmas the Library Club has a poinsetta sale to buy new books for the library.

The Fidelis Club, sponsored by Mrs. Gwendolyn Beaver and Mrs. Anna Lou Yancy, for girls interested in homemaking, promotes interest in better, more efficient homemaking.

It also helps develop poise and grace through its social activities.

To promote an interest in art, a new club has been formed of which Dannie McBroom is president; Madlon Montierth, vice-president; and Barbara Hanny, secretary-treasurer.

During the meetings Art Appreciation, chalk talks, and games concerning art are discussed and demonstrated.

Creative writing and expressing and receiving constructive criticism of literary work is the main purpose of the Crazy Quills sponsored by Miss Helen A. Morgan. The officers this year are Joe Lewis, president; Betty Lou Gilbert, Devora Costantin, and Virginia Backes.

The three bright spots in the school calander for the ROTC Club are the two Military Balls and the ROTC initiation banquet. These events are put on each year by the ROTC Club, a group open to all cadets who have attained the rank of guide seargent.

Col. Bob Wallace, acted as honorary president of the club, while active president was Bill Case.

Other officers were: Vice-President, Band Captain Genn Short; and Secretary, Lt. John Vinson.

The blue sweater and varsity letter means something special; the wearer is a member of one of the hardest to qualify for organizations in school.

This is the Letterman's Club which is composed of boys who have earned a letter in State Athletics by playing in their respective sports.

Officers for the year are Adron Reichert, president; Fred Olson, vice-president; Chuck Ellsworth secretary-treasurer; and Bill Landis Sergeant-in-arms.

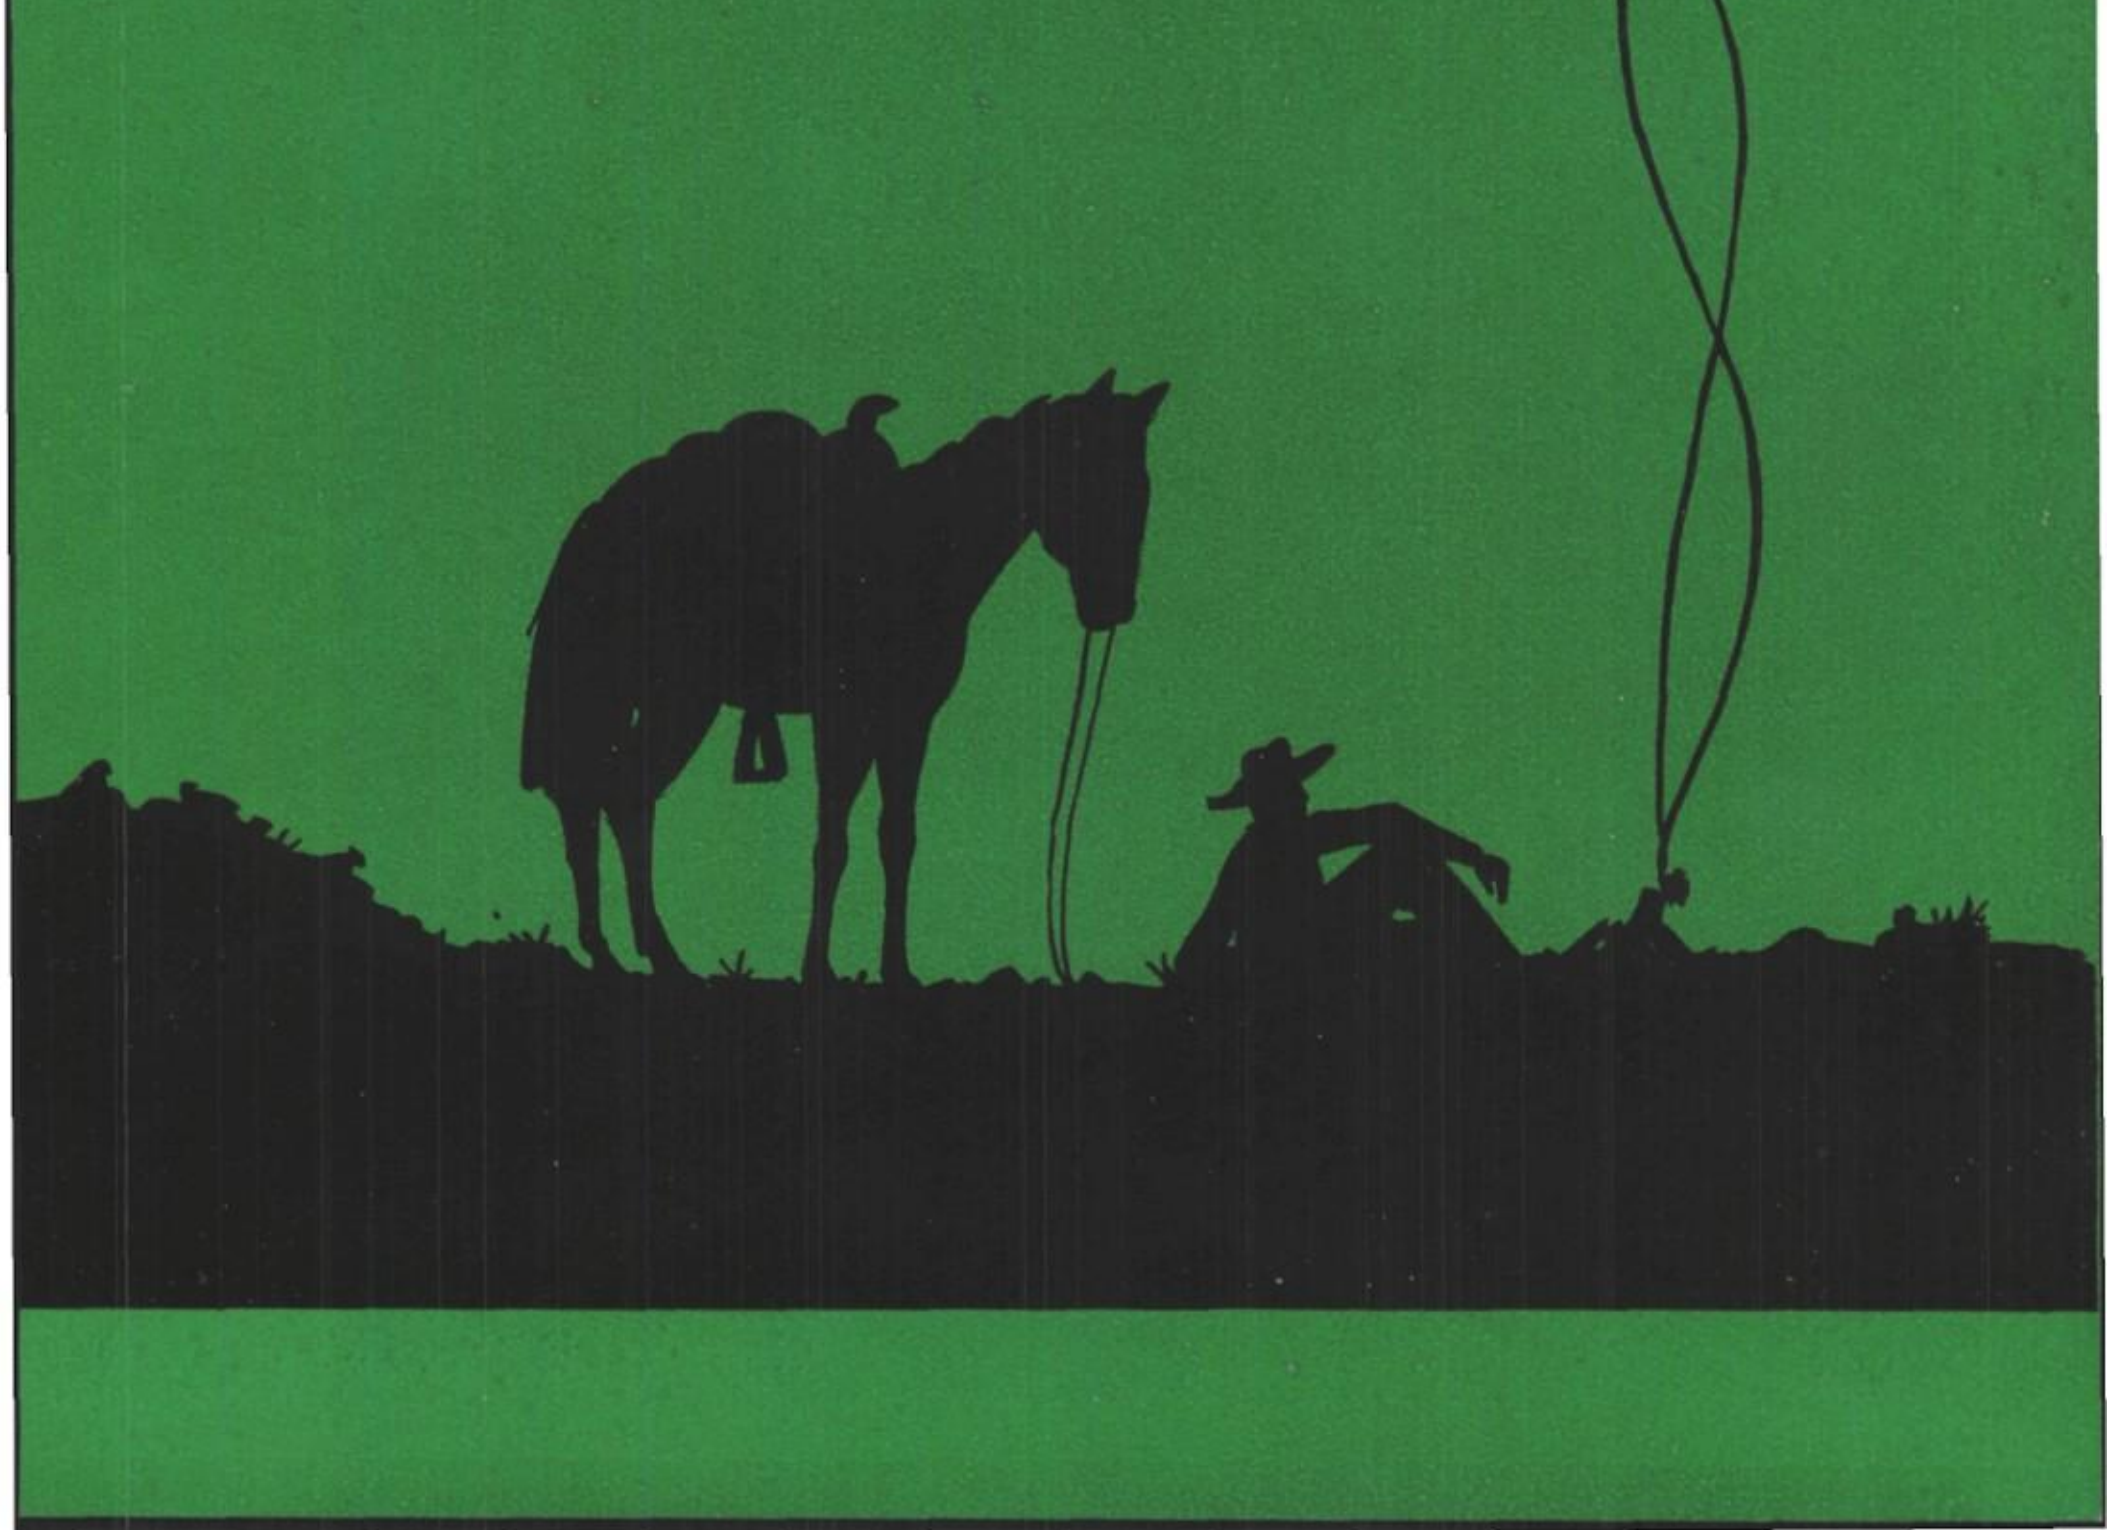
Student Life



After the excitement of the big game, everyone flocked to the gym for good music, good company, and an all around good time.

Below are Clair Folk and Lolita Sand dancing to the music of Paul Coconower and his orchestra.

Stampede

As comic strip characters, the members of the Girl's League attended their fourth annual Coed Dance. This dance was sponsored by the Girl's League with the idea of promoting a good time for girls. Music is provided by good reliable Mr. Juke Box and refreshments are served. Games are also available and a good time is had by all.

Soft lights, paper streamers, and handsome boys—no crude West here! These are the Military Balls, given in the spring and fall by the Military departments of North High and Phoenix Union High Schols. They are long planned for, long waited for, and even our confirmed civic enthusiasts seem to enjoy this bit of splendor. They're an occasion for all the glamour trappings—the beau with his gold braid and Sam Brown, and medals, the belle with her high heels and corsage. A big occasion!

Pardners

Rangers

This annual ceremony, presented by the military department, is always a memorable occasion. It expresses the school spirit in a manner which emphasizes the patriotism of the individual student.

The military band, headed by Glen Short, adds to the beauty of the ceremony as the R.O.T.C. regiments march in parade to display the orderly procession.

It's "a snowin," and everyone's in bright warm clothes singing Christmas carols with sleigh bells in the background. That's the Christmas assembly, of course, one of the most colorful assemblies of the year, with Mr. Jesse Sedberry directing the Boy's and Girls' Glee Club.

It seems a far cry from our cowboys and cactus, but we Westerners have a great respect for old traditions, maybe cause ours are so young.

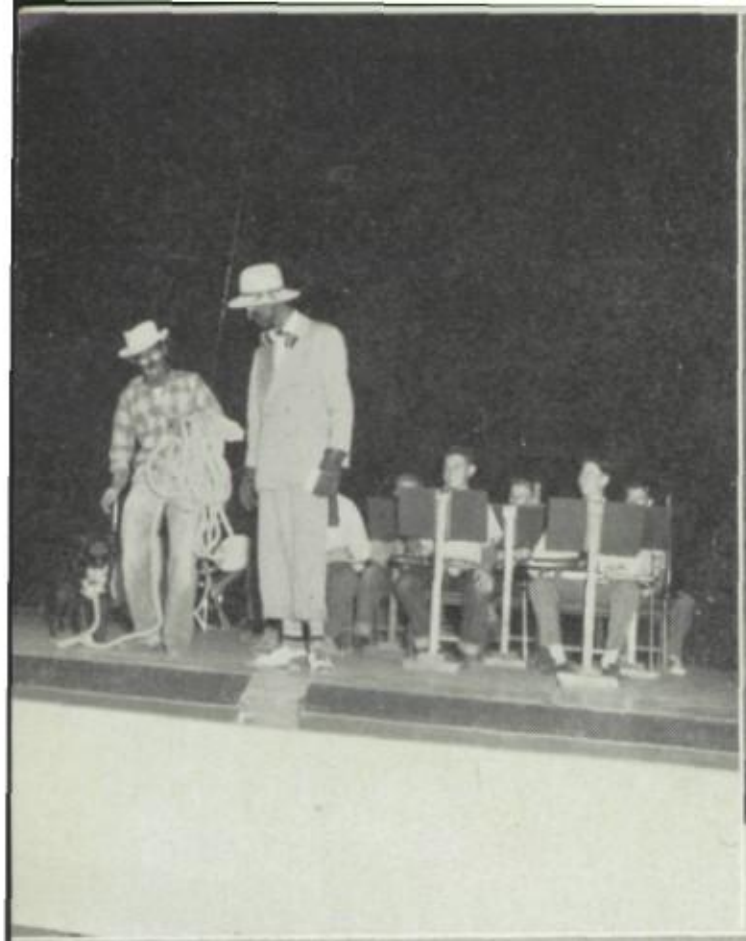
Being pursued by thirteen women who thought he was "so cute" was the fate of Charles Strouss in the assembly in which he can say nothing but "Thanks, Awfully".

Culture had its say, tempered well with lightness at the Mid-Winter Concert, presented by the Music Department under the direction of Mr. Jesse Sedberry and Miss Sylvia Poling.



Student assemblies had both a funny and a serious side. Humerous antics, old style vaudeville, and swing music constitute joyous entertainment. Robert Brock and Richard Rodgers (upper left) are demonstrating their "Rastas and Sambo" act. Louie Bohn, Jack Roberts, and Jerry Davich hold the audience during the Roundup assembly. In the Russian ballet Joan Moore and Shirley Shultz dance in front of the expressive background painted by the art department. Paul Cocanower and his orchestra are really "in the groove." On the serious side Charlotte Ogden, Clark Hale, Marial Slaughter, and Gloria Hallquist help present the Lincoln's Birthday assembly.

Show Offs

This cute little crooner is Ruth Gotlieb, one of the singers who have entertained us this past year.

A great deal of credit for the high quality of assemblies this year goes to the advanced dramatics class under the supervision of Miss Lucille Hicks.

The subject for the Public Discussion Contest, an annual oratorical event sponsored by the Rotary Club, was "Youth Faces the World of Today and Tomorrow." The class winners from North High competed against winners from Phoenix Union.

Joyce Jennings, freshman girl, representative, and Ruth Essex, junior girl were the only North High students who were chosen to compete in the finals, in which Joyce Jennings placed second. The first prize of $40 went to Sol Gould, Joyce received $25 and $15 was given to Howard Liebow, third place.

Promoting the betterment of Pan-American relations is one of the important bonds that hold together the United States and our neighbors to the South. Miss Howatt is explaining points of traveling interest in Mexico to her Spanish Class.

What could be more essential to a secretarial course than Miss White's typing class! for one of the first requirements of a secretary is that she type.

It's hard work teaching two of the most important subjects in the school, science and English, but Mr. Wm. C. Vaughn, Mr. Dewey Marker, and Mr. Lew K. Barney are doing a good job in their prospective fields.

Here we have several boys from wood and auto shops, working vigorously on their projects.

In wood shop they have an opportunity to learn to make furniture and many other useful objects; while in auto shop the boys are taught the fundamentals of automobile maintenance, construction, and repairs. These classes are many times hard work and many times fun.

Greenhorns

The agricultural development of our school, headed by Mr. Fred Draper, has probably given students interested in this type of work, more practical experience than any other course. The department operates under the Smith-Hughes Vocational plan and is partially financed by the Federal Government. Its aims are to train and develop leadership in farming, give students the proper technical and practical experience, and assist boys to become established in farming. A subsiduary department of the Agricultural class is the Future Farmers of America, a National organization with several chapters in Arizona. Their club sponsors cooperative farming, and ambitious members of the agricultural class carry on the work with the aid of modern farm machinery on the North High plot, at the Junior College, where vegetables are raised and sold to our cafeteria.

Roundup

The day the Roundup comes out is always a big one for the Journalism Department. The coming event is heralded on the loudspeaker system with clever commercials and skits worked out by the staff members, and at noon the journalism and publication students set up their tables and distribute the papers to those who have subscriptions. Other students canvass the campus selling extra copies.

Carol Griffen and Susan Phillips examine garments which homemaking students have made for the Red Cross Drive.

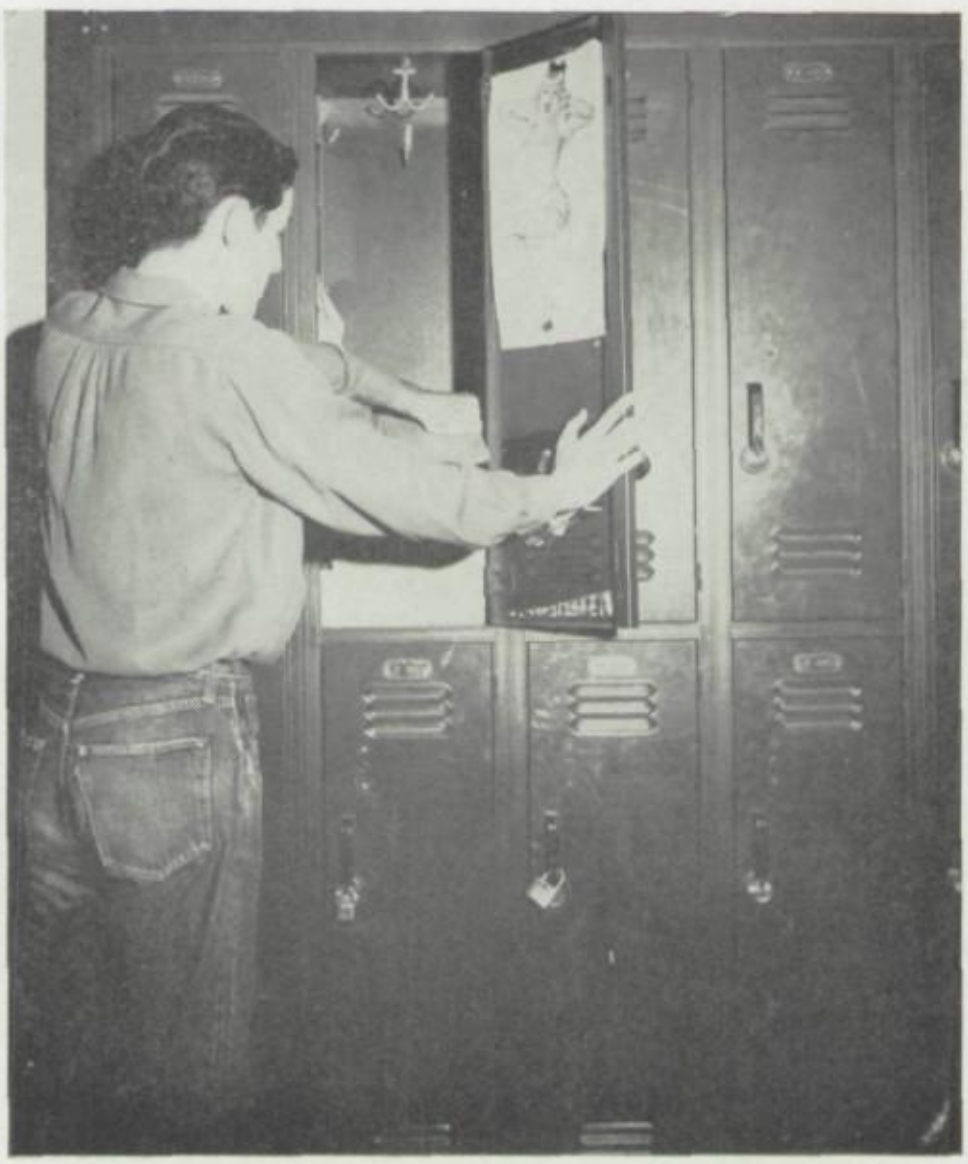
The Homemaking department has had another successful year. Among courses offered was child guidance in which children from theages of 2 to 5 were observed. This type of class has been offered for seven years and remains one of the most popular. Mrs. Beaver is the instructor. Among the other classes are home management, cooking, sewing, and human relations.

Under supervision of Miss Anna Lou Nancy, Alice Rawlins and Camille King learn the nacks of sewing.

Fads

Here at North High the students really live up to the reputation teen agers have for fads and fashions. They started out this year by participating in the nation's bubble craze. The girls went all out for ballet slippers, leaving their choice of last year, saddles and loafers, to the boys. Pictures of Varga girls and stars like

Van Johnson, Cornel Wilde, Gregory Peck, and June Allyson decorated the locker doors this year, but the typical high school boy's car really tops everything; the boys buy rundown vehicles and paint and work them over until they are really proud of them.



In the Chutes

Explaining the bone structure of the body to a biology student is one of the many things that Mrs. Elsie Chason, biology teacher, enjoys doing.

Francis Duerson, student, is interested in knowing the formation of the bone he broke in his leg.

Biology is an extremely fascinating subject and the students of North High thoroughly appreciate the work of the teachers who add to our scientific learning.

Mrs. Charlotte Cockerell shows her interest in the American background, while Mr. James Carter is industriously working with the business population of tomorrow.

Grub Time

Who cares if the cafeteria isn't finished, when the students can sit out on the lawns to eat lunch! Of course, on rainy days, it was nice to be allowed to be given rooms in the buildings, but there is nothing like picnicking. Happily, even the joy of eating outside is now unnecessary; the cafeteria is completed and hot lunches and sandwiches are being served.

What would a high school annual be if it weren't for the signatures of your friends in an about the cover and pages? Shown here are some of the students signing annuals after they had received them last spring. This is one of the things that a high school student looks forward to after buying his annual. One of these days in the future you can get out your annual and say to your old school chum, "You signed that back in 1946."

PASS IN REVIEW—and the regiment is brought to attention preparatory to parading past the reviewing officers. Shown above are the staff officers and their American Legion guests on the reviewing line.

THE REGIMENT is given an opportunity periodically to demonstrate their militaristic ability in patriotic downtown parades.

The Military Department of North High has perhaps brought more honor to our school than any other group. Last year, Military Night was won by our regiment and it has consistantly lead a War Department "Honor Rating." Our rifle team, which suffered some minor setbacks this year because of inexperienced personnal, came in fifth in the ninth Service Command area, fired in the National Inter-Collegiate Matches and made a remarkable record in the Senior Hurst Contest. Under the able guidance of Major Magee and our new instructor Sergeant Sheridan, our regiment expects to bring even more honors to our school by defeating our rival, the Phoenix Union Unit, in all coming military contests.

Sergeant Sheridan, new assistant of Military Science and Tactics, who formerly served as a member of the U. S. Occupation forces in Germany and eleven years in the Army, has a wide range of experience, and his able instruction has enabled our unit to make an outstanding success of the year.

The importance of "being in the know" about such scoops as the returns of the Student Body election—the bored disinterest in the paper when it comes out, for after all, "Don't we know everything that's in it?" the modest pointing out of one's own stories—these are all advantages of one who works on our bi-weekly school paper, the Mustang Roundup.

Besides student approval, the Mustang Roundup earned All-American rating, which is awarded by the National Press Association. This makes the fourth year of winning the honor.

Under the direction of Paul Reinhardt as editor, the editorial staff worked long and hard to put out a fine paper. The members of this staff were Don Jansen, managing editor; Janice Falk, news editor; and Pat Small, feature editor.

At the end of the first semester the following were chosen to serve as an assistant editorial board: Elizabeth Hawkins, Julienne Jennings, Dorothy Jewell, Sally Sebree, Patty Stapley, and Norma Tanner. Members of the art staff were Doug Cook, Bill Eaton, and Dave Manning. The photographers were Milton Harvey, Louie Bohn, Don Hoelzen, and Howard Klink.

Under the able direction of Miss Lucille Hicks, the first all-school play, "The Land is Bright" by Ferber and Kaufman, will long be remembered as one of the best dramatic productions ever staged at North High. The play tells the story of the Kincaids, a wealth Western family who crash New York society.

The scenery and costumes fit the periods exactly and the make up department did an excellent job of aging people twenty five years in five minutes. The characters were excellently cast.

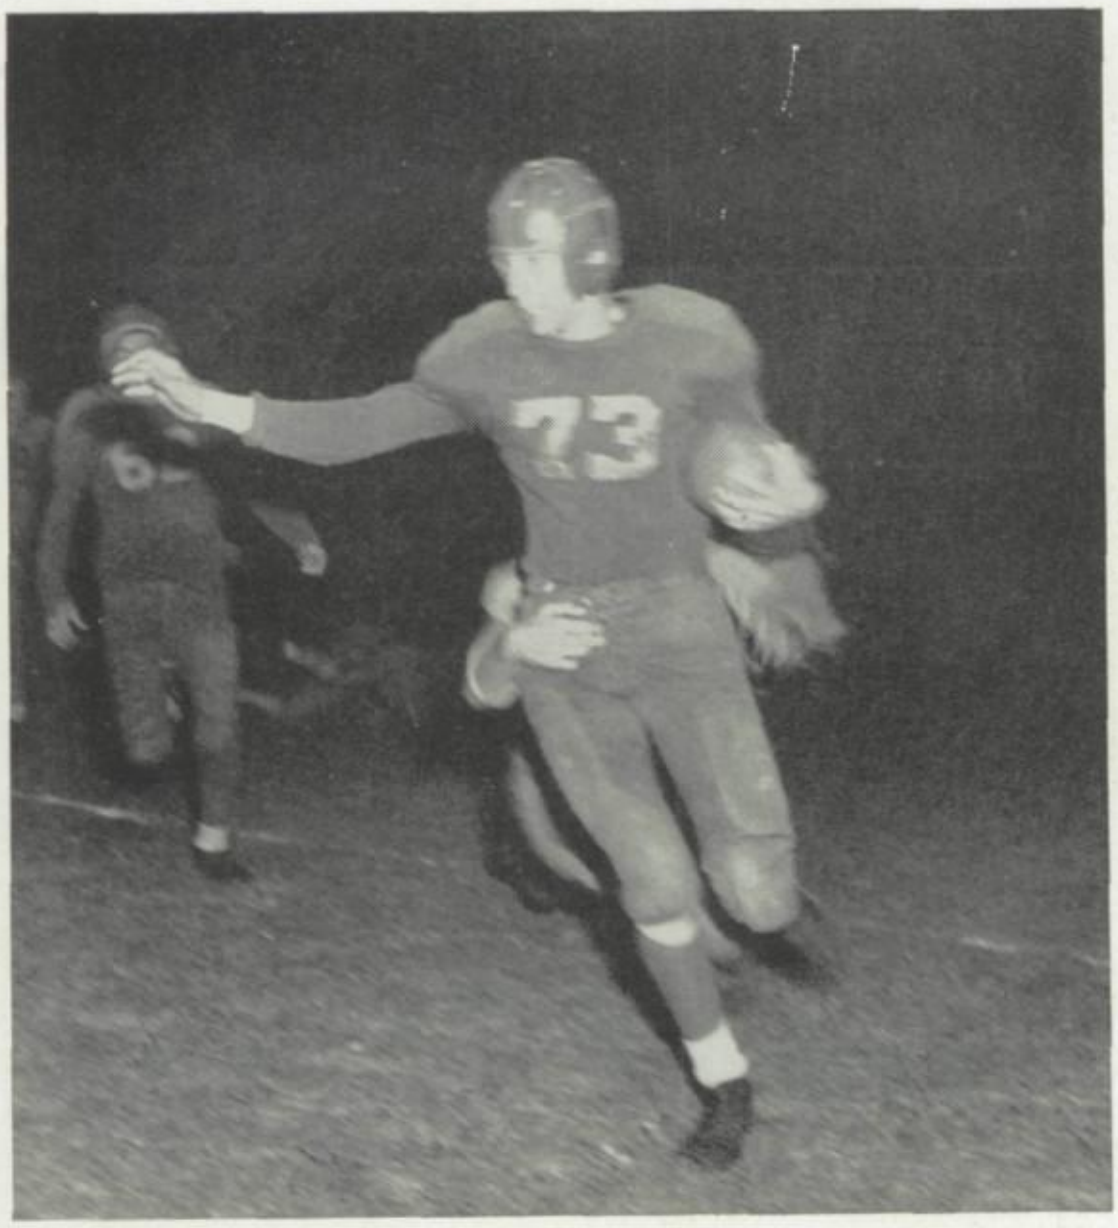
Under the brilliant western sun the team battles for North High's honor.

The Mustangs and Coyotes begin the annual Thanksgiving Day tussle. For the fifth time the North High Horses won. The score was 7-6.



The Mustangs opened their season by walloping the Casa Grande Cougars 39-0 on the Cougars home field. The Wild Horses were ahead after the first minute of play and kept piling up touchdowns to lead 32-0 at the half. The second and third stringers took over at the half and added another touchdown. Jack Stoops, Leroy Shaw, Jim Decker each scored one touchdown while Tom Hammon scored two.

The Mustangs second opponents were the St. Mary's Knights who fell before the Wild Horses 20-0. This game was probably the best game of the season for the Mustangs. Their plays ran like a well oiled machine. Halfback Tom Hammon again was the big gun for the Mustangs with two touchdowns. Jim Decker added the other touchdown.

The Wild Horses went to P.U.H.S. stadium for their second game in a row. This time they ran up against an underdog bunch of Mesa Jackrabbits, and they promptly upset the favored Mustangs 19-2. Wilford White and Marvin Scott, Mesa's All-State stars, were too much for the hosses. North High scored its only two points when Center John Norton and Tackle Bill Landis broke through Mesa's line and blocked a punt for a safety.

Next the Mustangs went to Glendale to play a thrilling 7-7 tie with the Cards. The game was a scoreless tie until the final two minutes rolled around. Glendale scored at this point on a pass while a moment later Adron Reichert intercepted a Glendale pass and ran to the Glendale 8 yard line. There he took a flat pass from Leroy Shaw for a touchdown. Pete Isumi kicked the all important tying point.

The big bad Badgers from Tucson came roaring into Phoenix to be the Mustangs next opponent. The cocky Badgers made the Mustangs their 26th straight victim, but for three quarters it looked like the Mustangs would send the Badgers back to the Old Pueblo holding the bag. The first half was a bang up defensive battle with neither team scoring. The Mustangs got as far as Tucson's 3 yard line in the third canto but couldn't quite make it. With the Wild Horses again threatening to score at the start of the final quarter Oscar Carrillo, Tucson All-State halfback, speared a Mustang pass from the air and galloped 79 yards to score a touchdown. The broken-hearted Mustangs went to pieces and Tucson added two more touchdowns to make the final score 21-0.

Next week the Mustangs journeyed to El Paso to play the Bowie Bears. The lighter Bears were too fast for the heavier Mustangs and the Wild Horses fell 13-6.

Next week the Mustangs prepping for their big turkey day battle edged the Albuquerque, New Mexico, Bulldogs 7-0. The Wild Horses looked more like a championship club as they outplayed the big out of state eleven. Jack Stoops made the touchdown on a quarterback sneak in the third quarter.

The Mustangs came to the day they had been waiting for all year . . . Thanksgiving. They went into the big game of the year favored to make it five straight over their southside rivals.

14,000 fans crowded their way into the Phoenix Union Stadium to witness the traditional battle under a blistering sun. The Mustangs scored the first touchdown after Bill Landis blocked a Coyote punt in mid-field. On the second down Leroy Shaw fired a buck pass to Captain Adrian Reichert, and he galloped 40 yards to score. Shaw converted by placement for the all-important extra point.

The Coyotes scored their touchdown in the second quarter on a pass from Rommell to Walkup. The Coyotes attempted to convert by placement, but quarterback Jack Stoops broke through the line to block it.

The second half was a dog eat dog affair with both teams putting up a nice defensive game. But as the shadows began to fall over the field the final whistle blew and the score board read Mustangs 7 Coyotes 6. The Mustangs' jinx still held, and they were city champions.

After the season had closed six Mustangs were honored by being picked to play in the first Annual North-South game held in Tucson. Guard Harry Goss, End Adron Reichert, Tackle Vin Ciruzzi, Bill Landis and halfback Bill Greaves and Fullback Jim Decker were the ones picked, but Landis was the only one able to participate in the game.

The Republic All State teams also had six Mustangs. Co-captain Harry Goss was a first team selection, Vin Cirruzzi was on the second team, Jim Decker and Adron Reichert were third team selections and Bill Landis and Don Meloche gained honorable mention.

Colts

The energetic cheer-leaders above: Lorna Lee Kempton, Bob Johns, Fern Miller, and Norma Love kept up the fighting spirit of our football team and the enthusiasm of the North High fans at the games with their snappy yells.

The Mustangs came back to Phoenix to suffer a defeat from the El Paso Tigers. The El Paso school had probably their best team in years, and they rolled over the Wild Horses 32-7.

After a week's rest a rejuvenated band of Mustangs went to Yuma to suffer a heart-breaking 7-6 defeat.

Right: Captain Adron Reichert can not quite reach a pass in the same Mesa game.

Football is a hard game to learn, as any member of the Colts will tell you.

The boys who will make up our future varsity teams worked as hard as any team in the past and are proud to be the first second team in the school's history to win more than two games during the season.

After losing a heart breaking 13-6 game to the Buckeye Hawks, a 13-0 defeat by the St. Marys Vikings, and a 7-0 thriller to the Glendale Jay-vees, the Colts managed to hold the Phoenix Indian School to a scoreless tie.

The Colts also tied Phoenix Union and won their first game of the season from Mesa's Bunnies, 13-0.

They beat Glendale, 7-6, but Phoenix Union's Grays rolled up a petrifying 35-13 victory over the surprised Colts.

They ran up the highest score of the year at the Indian School, winning 45-0.

The Colts ended the season by invading Mesa, but were slightly overconfident and the Bunnies surprised them and took a 25-13 victory.

We gaze across our campus to the one building that has given us so much joy—the auditorium.

VARSITY BASKETBALL: First Row: Karam, Bartee, Currie, Gregg. Second Row: Dunlap, Miller, McDowell, Thompson, Fuller. Third Row: Caldwell, Shaw, Lane, Olsson—Captain, Reichert, Reader, Duffy.

For the first time in the history of North High the Mustang basketball team won the Big-5 championship. In order to win this title, the Horses had to overcome Tucson, Phoenix Union, Mesa, and Yuma. They had 5 victories against 2 losses in Big-5 play.

Another feather in the Mustang's cap was the winning of the city title. The title wasn't decided until the last game of intro-city play in which North Phoenix edged St. Marys out by a slim 45-44 victory.

This years team wasn't built around any one star. Instead, it was built by teamwork. For shooting the team had Larry Reader, who secured 233 points in 24 games. The rest of the team scored as follows: Adron Reichert—147 points, Fred Olsson—140 points, Leroy Shaw—118 points, and Bob Lane —116 points. For outstanding ball handling the Horses had Leroy Shaw. Bob Lane, Adron Reichert, and Captain Fred Olsson were the big guns for rebound work.

Fred Olsson, Mustang guard, sinks an underhand hook shot in the opening game of the season against St. Marys. Jim Gentry, Knight forward, waits for the rebound.

The Mustang's reserves showed many promising qualities this year and for the years to come. For rebound and under the basket work the reserves depended upon Max Dunlap, Oren "Buggy" McDowell, Clarence Finch, and and Parker Gregg, while they had Lawrence Fuller, Roy Thompson, Earl Bartee, and Gaylord Currie for sharpshooting. Jim Karam showed well in both shooting and rebound work.

The Colts had an exceptionally good reason this year, winning 18 out of 23 games. They were also declared City Champions and winners of the mythical "Little Big Five" title.

Two Colt players, John Winkler and Boyd Clements made first string forwards on the Junior Varsity All-State.

The leading scorers of the year were Boyd Clements, 147 points; Bob Stovall, 136 points; John Winkler, 129 points; Joe Ablos, 96 points.

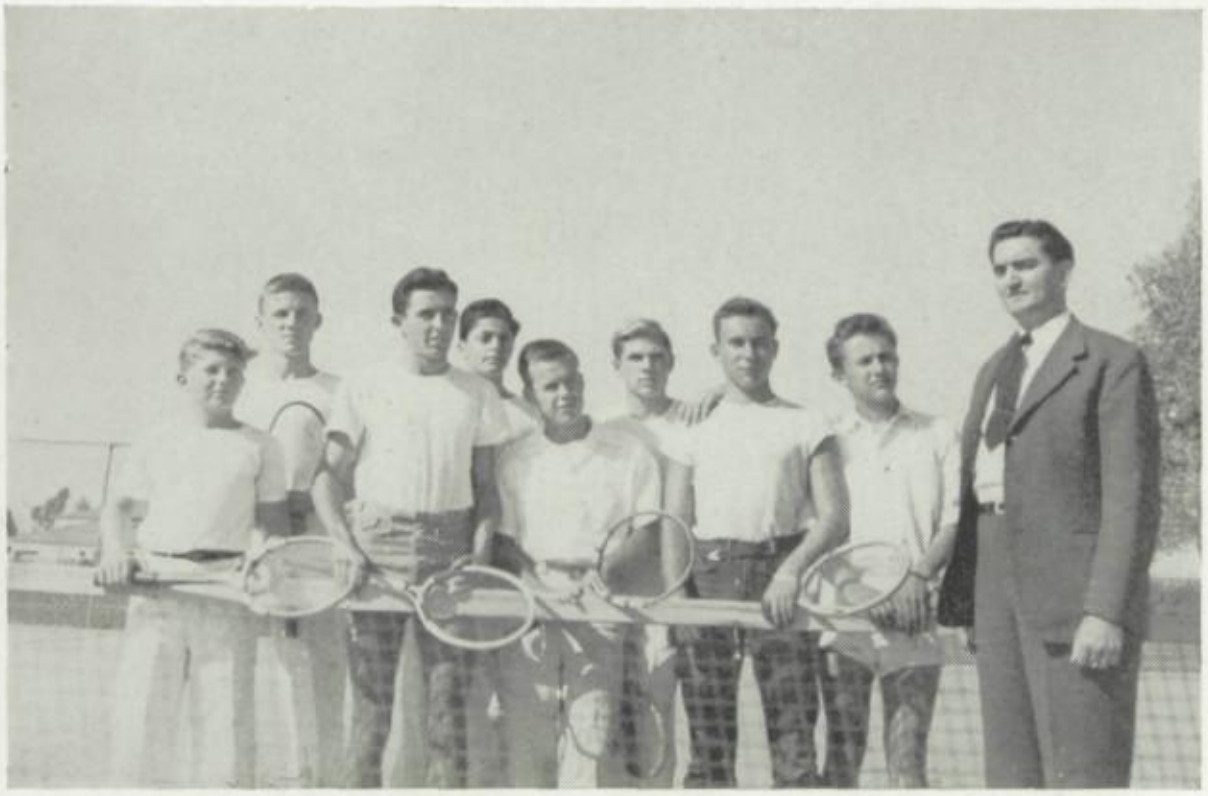
The Mustang track squad, under the coaching of Don Pace, developed into the best-balanced track team to represent North High in high school competition.

The Mustangs were especially strong in the distances and field events. In the distances the Horses had Jim Hamilton, Gordon Simms, and Fred Olsson. Outstanding in high jump was Merlin Thevenot "the human spring." Captain Bill Greaves broadjumped over 21 feet several times and also threw the shot-put. Don Miller and Parker Gregg both placed well in the discus throw, while Dave Manning and Fred Olsson did the pole-vaulting. Bill Greaves, Max Dunlap, and Fred Olsson competed in the hurdle events. Dash men were scarce, but Jack Atkin, Dick Troxel, and Paul Bassford rounded out into good sprinters. Other track members were: Kenny Olsson, Malcom Wharton, Leon Tolleson, Glen Ford, Harry Sogan, George Yamma, Mitsukie Mitsuda, Gene Schmitz, Ralph Vick, Kenneth Anger, Frank Forline, and Frank Baylor.

Buckskins



BOYS TENNIS: First Row: Schouthaler, Miller, Randolph, Shevick, Charles, Urieze, Bullock, Weaver, Mr. Stephens.

Mr. C. O. Stephens, boys tennis coach, reports that his team enjoyed a very successful season. The team played 21 events during the season; 12 public High School matches, 4 private high school matches, 4 touranments and 1 college match.

The team lost only 2 public High School matches during the season. Players receiving varsity letters are Bobby Charles, Victor Randolph, Duane Miller, Joe Weaver, Murray Shevick, Graham Bullock, and Delton Schonthaler (Mgr.)

The 1946 edition of our baseball team was one of the best in the history of the school.

With the return of Coach Clair Van Hoorebeck, the Mustangs became a quick thinking aggregation; and with the hitting power of Captain Boetto, Nicholas, Ellsworth, Landis and company, the boys played a better brand of ball than they have in the past few years.

The team received very good pitching from Buck Weaver, ex-Marine, Billy Householder, and Jack Maddy, a transfer from San Jose, California.

Arrows flicked over the green for the first time this year and archery made its debut at North High. A strong start was made and a large squad of coeds began November practice in the brisk winds of mid-winter, under the direction of Mrs. Bettse Marten Phelps.

Susan Thompson, outstanding 14-year-old freshman, won the Arizona State Archers Tournament, class B, and wand shoot, shattering a state record in the latter event. Bonnie Jean Stearns took fourth place in the same meet and tied for second place with Betty Magee in the wand shoot.

The season was decidedly a success. Archery is apparently here to stay and will next year take its place among other GAA sports of the year.

Tennis matches were played against ten Salt River Valley High schools, as well as two against both Arizona State College at Tempe and Tucson Senior High School. Under the coaching of Miss Catherine A. Winkinson more than 75% of the matches played were won. Three team members completed for state singles and doubles championships in Tucson during University week. All considered, the tennis season was most successful.

Pictured above are All Star players of one or more of the basketball and softball. All Stars, selected through the combined votes of a'l class team members and GAA sponsors, represent the top notch players in each sport.

The GAA Executive Board of 1945 and 1946 consisted of Dolores Low, president; Mary Louise Turner, vice-president; Barbara Rice, secretary, and Geyrene Grammar, treasurer. Other members and class representatives were Fern Miller, senior; Marlene Gallman, junior; Velma Barnett, sophomore; Billie Wynn, freshman, and Betty Magee, publicity chairman.

The Executive Board or "Cabinet" arranged all GAA social activities, planned and executed its GAA initiation and generally conducted GAA activities throughout the year. Mrs. Bettse Marten Phelps was faculty advisor to the GAA.

The Girls' Athletic Association of North Phoenix completed a successful year and many athletes received awards either in the form of the small letter, large letter, silver medal or gold medallion.

Competition with other valley schools added much to a fine year and in nearly all cases North High girls won their games.

Successive volley ball games with St. Mary's School for Girls put North High Volleyers into shape for the Salt River Valley annual volleyball sports day which was to be played at North Phoenix. However, a state-wide siege of flu caused the event to be cancelled. Interclass competition was close, the Junior A team winning the championship. Two Phoenix Junior College matches as well as one with Tempe College rounded out the volleyball season.

Speedball competition began and ended with a match against Glendale, played there. North High varsities scored easy victories. The Junior A team took GAA honors under the leadership of Betty Jean Cloud.

Three weeks of pre-season basketball put North High hoopsters into form for the annual Basketball Sport Day. The North High six just missed taking top honors in the event and tied for second place with Glendale. An outstanding Sophomore A Team won the GAA championship.

Spring brought green fields, fair skies, and softball. Glendale sponsored the Salt River Valley Softball Sport Day, in which teams from St. Mary's, Phoenix Union, Mesa, Glendale, Tempe, and North Phoenix participated.

The award assembly and annual spring swimming picnic wound up a grand year and an ever better season is anticipated for 1946-47.
